DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[F.R.Civ.P. rule 38(b)]

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs herein complain, by filing this Civil Complaint in accordance with rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure in the Judicial District of the United States District Court of the Southern District of California, that Defendants have in the past, and presently are, engaging in discriminatory practices against individuals with disabilities, specifically including minorities with disabilities. Plaintiffs allege this civil action and others substantial similar thereto are necessary to compel access compliance because empirical research on the effectiveness of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act indicates this Title has failed to achieve full and equal access simply by the executive branch of the Federal Government funding and promoting voluntary compliance efforts. Further, empirical research shows when individuals with disabilities give actual notice of potential access problems to places of public accommodation without a federal civil rights action, the public accommodations do not remove the access barriers. Moreover, although there has been substantial litigation and enforcement of the barrier removal requirements, there no enforcement of the auxiliary aid requirements. A public accommodation is required to provide auxiliary aids and services that are necessary to ensure equal access to the goods, services, facilities, privileges, or accommodations that it offers, unless an undue burden or a fundamental alteration would result. This obligation extends only to individuals with disabilities who have physical or mental impairments, such as vision, hearing, or speech impairments, that substantially limit the ability to communicate. In order to provide equal access, a public accommodation is required to make available appropriate auxiliary aids and services where necessary to ensure effective communication. The type of auxiliary aid or service necessary to ensure effective communication will vary in accordance with the length and complexity of the communication involved. Public accommodations should consult with individuals with disabilities wherever possible to determine what type of auxiliary aid is needed to ensure effective communication. In many cases, more than one type of auxiliary aid or service may make effective communication possible. While consultation is strongly encouraged, the ultimate decision as to what measures to take to ensure effective communication rests in the hands of the public accommodation, provided that the method chosen results in effective communication. Signing and interpreting are not the same thing. Being able to sign does not mean that a person can process spoken communication into the proper signs, nor does it mean that he or she possesses the proper skills to observe someone signing and change their signed or fingerspelled communication into spoken words. The interpreter must be able to interpret both receptively and expressively. Auxiliary aids and services include a wide range of services and devices that promote effective communication. Examples of auxiliary

1 aids and services for individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing include qualified interpreters, 2 notetakers, computer-aided transcription services, written materials, telephone handset amplifiers, 3 assistive listening systems, telephones compatible with hearing aids, closed caption decoders, open 4 and closed captioning, telecommunications devices for deaf persons (TDD's), videotext displays, 5 and exchange of written notes. Examples for individuals with vision impairments include qualified 6 readers, taped texts, audio recordings, Brailled materials, large print materials, and assistance in 7 locating items. TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS WITH 8 DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES advocates for the provision of auxiliary aids. Therefore, 9 Plaintiffs make the following allegations in this federal civil rights action:

10 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 1. The federal jurisdiction of this action is based on the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42
12 United States Code 12101-12102, 12181-12183 and 12201, et seq. Venue in the Judicial District
13 of the United States District Court of the Southern District of California is in accordance with 28 14 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of Plaintiffs' claims arose within the Judicial District of 15 the United States District Court of the Southern District of California.

16 SUPPLEMENTAL JURISDICTION

17 2. The Judicial District of the United States District Court of the Southern District of 18 California has supplemental jurisdiction over the state claims as alleged in this Complaint pursuant 19 to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a). The reason supplemental jurisdiction is proper in this action is because all 20 the causes of action or claims derived from federal law and those arising under state law, as herein 21 alleged, arose from common nucleus of operative facts. The common nucleus of operative facts, 22 include, but are not limited to, the incidents where Plaintiffs were denied full and equal access to 23 Defendants' facilities, goods, and/or services in violation of both federal and state laws when they 24 attempted to enter, use, and/or exit Defendants' facilities as described below within this Complaint.

25 Further, due to this denial of full and equal access, TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR 26 CHILDREN AND ADULTS WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES, SUING ON 27 BEHALF OF ITS MEMBERS; and other persons with disabilities were injured. Based upon the 28

1 said allegations, the state actions, as stated herein, are so related to the federal actions that they 2 form part of the same case or controversy and the actions would ordinarily be expected to be tried 3 in one judicial proceeding.

4 NAMED DEFENDANTS AND NAMED PLAINTIFF

20 organization and TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS WITH 21 DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES , SUING ON BEHALF OF ITS MEMBERS; and persons 22 associated with its Members who accompanied Members to Defendants' facilities. Defendants

24 CALLAHANS A CALIFORNIA GENERAL PARTNERSHIP; CENTRO WATT PROPERTY
25 OWNER I LLC Plaintiffs are ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendants sued herein 26 as Does 1 through 10, inclusive, and therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names.
27 Plaintiffs will pray leave of the court to amend this complaint to allege the true names and 28

1 capacities of the Does when ascertained.

2 5. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants and each of them 3 herein were, at all times relevant to the action, the owner, lessor, lessee, franchiser, franchisee, 4 general partner, limited partner, agent, employee, representing partner, or joint venturer of the 5 remaining Defendants and were acting within the course and scope of that relationship. Plaintiffs 6 are further informed and believe, and thereon allege, that each of the Defendants herein gave 7 consent to, ratified, and/or authorized the acts alleged herein to each of the remaining Defendants.

8 STATEWIDE CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS UNDER FED.R.CIV.P. 23(b) AS TO ALL
9 DEFENDANTS

10 6. Plaintiffs are members of a group within the State of California composed of persons with a 11 wide range of disabilities, limited to persons who use wheelchairs for mobility, who must be able to 12 access retail merchandise establishments, like Defendants' establishments located within the 13 facility in which CALLAHANS A CALIFORNIA GENERAL PARTNERSHIP; CENTRO 14 WATT PROPERTY OWNER I LLC is located. Plaintiffs are precluded from equal access to 15 Defendants' establishment so meaningfully because the establishment fails to provide access for 16 members of the disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility to disabled parking 17 facilities, exterior path of travel facilities, entrance facilities, interior path of travel facilities, and 18 display facilities. The Supreme Court of the United States has held as long as the class 19 representative provides adequate representation for the class' interests, the court has the power to 20 adjudicate the rights and obligations of all class members – even those who would otherwise be 21 beyond the reach of its personal jurisdiction. Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 US 797 (1985).
22 This case stands for the proposition that minimum contacts are not required with nonresident 23 members of a plaintiff class because, “the burdens placed by a State upon absent class action 24 plaintiff are not of the same order or magnitude as those it places on an absent defendant.” Id.
25 Plaintiffs allege they will insure class members shall receive adequate notice of the proceedings and 26 the opportunity to “opt out,” if required. Defendants have conducted themselves such as to 27 establish a pattern and practice of architectural discrimination. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants 28 have control over each and every facility, establishment, and/or business located within the

1 Defendant Landlords' facilities in which Defendant CALLAHANS A CALIFORNIA
2 GENERAL PARTNERSHIP; CENTRO WATT PROPERTY OWNER I LLC is located.
3 Accordingly, Plaintiffs allege Defendants are responsible for removing architectural barriers at 4 Defendants' facilities and the establishment/business contained therein. For the aforementioned
5 reasons, Plaintiffs allege they are proper class representatives for members of the disability 6 community who use a wheelchair for mobility because the members of the disability community 7 who use a wheelchair for mobility are so numerous that joinder is impracticable due to the fact 8 more than one hundred (100) persons fall within the membership description. Also, the questions of 9 law or fact are so common because the members of the disability community who use a wheelchair 10 for mobility are being denied their civil rights under federal and state laws – that is, each member 11 of the disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility suffered substantially similar 12 violations relating to exterior path of travel facilities, entrance facilities, restrooms, interior path of 13 travel facilities, and display facilities. Further, the claims or defenses of the representative parties 14 are typical – Plaintiffs have the right to access facilities, establishments, and businesses like those 15 within the facility in which Defendant CALLAHANS A CALIFORNIA GENERAL
16 PARTNERSHIP; CENTRO WATT PROPERTY OWNER I LLC is located for many reasons
17 such as the purchase of retail merchandise. Defendants' facilities are open to the general public 18 and Plaintiffs have been denied access because of violations, as outlined above and specifically 19 addressed elsewhere within this Complaint. Additionally, Plaintiffs, as the named representatives, 20 will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the class because Plaintiffs and the members of 21 the disability community in the State of California who use a wheelchair for mobility have suffered 22 substantially similar violations. Finally, a pattern and practice exists on the part of Defendants, and 23 each of them, of architectural discrimination at their public facilities located within the State of 24 California. On information and good faith belief, Plaintiffs thereon allege that Defendants, prior to 25 the passing of the Americans With Disabilities Act in 1992, conceived, commissioned, designed, 26 and implemented among other things, a design for their public facilities, including, but not limited 27 to disabled parking facilities, exterior path of travel facilities, restroom, entrance facilities, interior 28

1 path of travel facilities, and display facilities, which do not meet the minimal standards outlined
2 under the federal regulations known as the Americans With Disabilities Act Accessibility
3 Guidelines ("ADAAG") and state regulations, also known as Title 24 of the California Building 4 Code, and to which non-compliant plan they continue to utilize to the injury of the members of the 5 class. For these reasons and the facts as stated herein, Plaintiffs have the right to maintain this 6 statewide class action pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. Rule 23(b).

7 CONCISE SET OF FACTS

8 7. Plaintiff's Members went to the CALLAHANS A CALIFORNIA GENERAL
9 PARTNERSHIP; CENTRO WATT PROPERTY OWNER I LLC. As Said Members are 10 unable to walk Plaintiff's Members uses a walker or wheelchair. Plaintiff alleges its visually and 11 hearing impaired members desire to go to Defendants' facility but cannot because of lack of 12 auxiliary aids. Defendants failed to provide auxiliary aids and services that are necessary to ensure 13 equal access to the goods, services, privileges, or accommodations that it offers. Title 28, part 14 36.303 of Code of Federal Regulations states:

15 (a) General. A public accommodation shall take those steps that may be necessary 16 to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated 17 or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of 18 auxiliary aids and services, unless the public accommodation can demonstrate that 19 taking those steps would fundamentally alter the nature of the goods, services, 20 facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations being offered or would result 21 in an undue burden, i.e., significant difficulty or expense.

22 (b) Examples. The term "auxiliary aids and services" includes:

23 (1) Qualified interpreters, notetakers, computer-aided transcription services, written 24 materials, telephone handset amplifiers, assistive listening devices, assistive 25 listening systems, telephones compatible with hearing aids, closed caption decoders, 26 open and closed captioning, telecommunications devices for deaf persons (TDD's), 27 videotext displays, or other effective methods of making aurally delivered materials 28

1 available to individuals with hearing impairments;

2 (2) Qualified readers, taped texts, audio recordings, Brailled materials, large print 3 materials, or other effective methods of making visually delivered materials 4 available to individuals with visual impairments;

5 (3) Acquisition or modification of equipment or devices; and 6 (4) Other similar services and actions.

7 (c) Effective communication. A public accommodation shall furnish appropriate 8 auxiliary aids and services where necessary to ensure effective communication with 9 individuals with disabilities.

10 Defendants failed to comply with Title 28, part 36.303 of Code of Federal Regulations as it failed 11 to provide Qualified readers, taped texts, audio recordings, Brailled materials, or large print 12 materials. Plaintiffs specifically allege that Defendants knew, to a substantial certainty, that the 13 architectural barriers precluded wheelchair access. First, Plaintiffs will prove that Defendants had 14 actual knowledge that the architectural barriers precluded wheelchair access - that it would be hard 15 to believe that noncompliance with ADAAG as to accessible entrances could be other than 16 intentional. Second, due to the abundance of ADA information and constant news covers of ADA 17 lawsuits, Defendants had actual knowledge of the ADA and decided deliberately not to remove 18 architectural barriers. Third, Defendants have no plans to remodel. Fourth, it would be hard to 19 believe that Defendants did not have actual knowledge of ADA given all the ADA public 20 awareness campaigns, the abundance of free ADA information and the media's constant ADA 21 coverage. Fifth, a human being acting for the defendants made a conscious decision as to how to 22 proceed given the presence of the architectural barriers. Plaintiffs allege any alternative methods 23 preclude integration of wheelchair patrons, as it requires them to use a second-class entrance. Also, 24 expert testimony will show the facility contained inaccessible features. Plaintiffs allege businesses 25 often state that they have few customers with disabilities. Plaintiffs allege such customers avoid 26 patronizing inaccessible business and are deterred from patronizing such businesses. The courts 27 have recognized deterrence-based damage claims under Civil Code 54.3 and 52. Since California 28

1 courts have held that the California disability access laws manifest an intent on the part of the 2 legislature that they be interpreted in a manner that maximizes incentives for compliance, (see 3 Donald, 266 Cal. Rptr. at 808-11) the courts conclude that application of this canon of construction 4 requires that 54.1 and 51, and their respective damages provisions, 54.3 and 52, be interpreted as 5 extending to claims based on incidents of deterrence. The courts therefore hold that where a 6 plaintiff can prove that violations of applicable California disability access standards deterred her 7 on a particular occasion from attempting to attend a place of public accommodation, that plaintiff
8 states a claim for relief under California Civil Code 54.1 and 51 and, in particular, for damages, 9 under 54.3 and 52. Plaintiffs allege people with disabilities still face systemic discrimination each 10 and every day. One of the most debilitating forms of discrimination is segregation imposed by 11 others. Discrimination also includes exclusion, or denial of benefits, services, or other 12 opportunities that are as effective and meaningful as those provided to others. Discrimination 13 results from actions or inactions that discriminate by effect as well as by intent or design.
14 Discrimination also includes harms resulting from the construction of transportation, architectural, 15 and communication barriers and the adoption or application of standards and criteria and practices 16 and procedures based on thoughtlessness or indifference-of benign neglect. Discrimination also 17 includes harms affecting individuals with a history of disability, and those regarded by others as 18 having a disability as well as persons associated with such individuals that are based on false 19 presumptions, generalizations, misperceptions, patronizing attitudes, ignorance, irrational fears, and 20 pernicious mythologies. Discrimination also includes the effects a person's disability may have on 21 others. The ADA aim is: (1) To provide a clear and comprehensive national mandate for the 22 elimination of discrimination against individuals with disabilities; [and] (2) to provide clear, strong, 23 consistent, enforceable standards addressing discrimination against individuals with disabilities.
24 (42 U.S.C. § 12101(b)(1), (2) (Supp. II 1990)) Plaintiffs allege the legislative history of the Act, 25 which reflects congressional, concerns over the deleterious effects of discrimination against people
26 with disabilities. As a result, Congress incorporated within Title II of the ADA the remedial 27 provision in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. (As amended 29 U.S.C. § 794a)(42 28

1 U.S.C. § 12133)(See Smith v. Barton, 914 F.2d 1330, 1336 (9th Cir. 1990), cert. denied, 111 S.Ct.
2 2825 (1991)) Much has been written recently about the ADA and its mechanisms of enforcement.
3 (See e.g., Doran v. Del Taco, Inc., --- F.Supp.2d ---- (C.D. Cal. June 9, 2005); Molski, 347
4 F.Supp.2d at 862-63; Parr v. L & L Drive-Inn Restaurant, 96 F.Supp.2d 1065, 1070-71
5 (D.Haw.2000)) For purposes of this suit, it is sufficient to note that the statute creates a private 6 right of action through which a litigant may seek injunctive relief as well as attorneys' fees and 7 costs. (42 U.S.C. § 2188(a)) Plaintiffs allege that it cannot be said that because an attorney has 8 chosen to specialize in an area, which provides statutory attorneys fees his practice is necessarily 9 suspect. Class actions, antitrust, and consumer protection statutes are just some of the examples 10 where the legislature has made a determination that society will benefit from private attorneys 11 general. The ADA is but another example. Plaintiff TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR 12 CHILDREN AND ADULTS WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES , SUING ON BEHALF
13 OF AND ITS MEMBERS; is an organization that advocates on the behalf of children and others 14 with disabilities specifically including adults who use wheelchairs when their civil rights and 15 liberties have been violated. Plaintiff's Member visited the place in 2006 and plans on returning to 16 the place and he encountered architectural barriers there. Association standing requires that (1) its 17 members would otherwise have standing to sue in their own right, (2) the interests the association 18 seeks to protect are germane to the organization's purpose and (3) neither the claim asserted nor the 19 relief requested requires the participation of individual members. Hunt v. Washington Apple 20 Advertising Commission, 432 U.S. 333, 343; Greater Los Angeles Council On Deafness, Inc. v.
21 Baldrige, 827 F.2d 1353, 1358 (9th Cir. 1987). Plaintiffs have standing to bring this action.
22 Plaintiff Association has at least four members who use wheelchairs as they cannot walk at all. The 23 purpose of the Association is to fight to remove access and architectural barriers.

24
25 8. Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) have physical impairments because their conditions 26 affect one or more of the following body systems: neurological, musculoskeletal, special sense 27 organs, and/or cardiovascular. Further, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) said physical 28 impairments substantially limits one or more of the following major life activities: walking and

1 sight. In addition, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) cannot perform one or more of the said major 2 life activities in the manner, speed, and duration when compared to the average person. Moreover, 3 Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) has a history of or has been classified as having a physical 4 impairment as required by 42 U.S.C. § 12102(2)(A).

5 9. Plaintiff's Members expressly intend to patronize the establishment and the property that is 6 the subject of this Complaint in the immediate future.

7 10. Defendants failed to remove access barriers within the parking, exterior path of travel and 8 entrance public accommodations of Defendants' establishment. Plaintiff's Member was deterred 9 from patronizing the facility.

10 11. The architectural regulations or "design standards" implemented by the federal ADA are 11 often referred to in the literature as "ADAAGs," which is an acronym for "ADA Architectural 12 Guidelines." (See Independent Living I, 982 F. Supp. at pp. 707-708 ["The guidelines issued by the 13 Access Board are denominated the 'ADA Accessibility Guidelines' ('ADAAG.'). The design 14 standards enacted by the Attorney General are identical to the ADAAGs, but are denominated as 15 'Standards.' Despite the technical distinction, the two terms are often used interchangeably."]; 16 Access Now, Inc. v. Ambulatory Surgery Center Group, Ltd. (S.D. Fla. 2001) 146 F. Supp. 2d 17 1334, 1336 ["These guidelines are called ... ("ADAAG")"].) The "ADAAGs" are found in 18 Appendix A to Part 36 of title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The ADAAG violations 19 alleged here are basically so intuitive that it would be hard to believe that noncompliance with them 20 could be other than intentional.

21 12. Plaintiff(s) was deterred from patronizing the facility due to the alleged ADA violations 22 and/or alleged architectural barriers outlined in Paragraphs 10 through 11 above.

23 13. While Plaintiff's Member expressly wants to patronize Defendant's establishment and the 24 property that is the subject of this Complaint in the immediate future, Plaintiff and Plaintiff's 25 Member is expressly deterred from returning to the establishment and the property that is the 26 subject of this Complaint due to the existence of the architectural barriers outlined above in 27 Paragraphs 10 through 11.
28

1 14. Pursuant to federal and state law, Defendants are required to remove barriers to their 2 existing facilities. Further, Defendants had actual knowledge of their barrier removal duties under 3 the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Civil Code before January 26, 1992. Also, Defendants 4 should have known that individuals with disabilities are not required to give notice to a 5 governmental agency before filing suit alleging Defendants failed to remove architectural and sight 6 barriers.

7 15. Plaintiffs believe and herein allege Defendants' facilities have access violations not 8 directly known by Plaintiff which preclude or limit access by other members of Plaintiff 9 organization or other persons with disabilities.

10 16. Based on these facts, Plaintiffs allege Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) were 11 discriminated against each time he patronized Defendants' establishment. Plaintiff's Member was 12 extremely upset due to Defendants' conduct.

13 NOTICE

14 17. Plaintiffs are not required to provide notice to the defendants prior to filing a complaint.
15 (See Botosan v. Paul McNally Realty, 216 F.3d 827, 832 (9th Cir 2000)) However, a member made 16 an auxiliary aid request.

27. (iii) a failure to take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services; (iv) a failure to remove architectural barriers, and communication barriers that are structural in nature, in existing facilities in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

Claim IX

1 28. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendant 2 failed to demonstrate that the removal of a barrier is not readily achievable, and made such goods, 3 services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations available through alternative 4 methods in a segregated manner in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

5 Claim X

6 29. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendants 7 altered the use of their establishment in a manner that affected or could have affected the usability 8 of the facility or part thereof and failed to make alterations in such a manner that, to the maximum 9 extent feasible, the altered portions of the facility are readily accessible to and usable by individuals 10 with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12183.

11
12 30. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment and relief as hereinafter set forth.

13
14 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS - CLAIMS UNDER 15 CALIFORNIA ACCESSIBILITY LAWS

16 CLAIM I: Denial Of Full And Equal Access

17 31. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere in this complaint, Plaintiff's 18 Member and Plaintiff(s) was denied full and equal access to Defendants' goods, services, facilities, 19 privileges, advantages, or accommodations within a public accommodation owned, leased, and/or 20 operated by Defendants as required by Civil Code Sections 54 and 54.1. Defendants' facility 21 violated California's Title 24 Accessible Building Code by failing to provide access to Defendants' 22 facilities due to violations pertaining to the Space Allowance and Reach Ranges, Accessible Route, 23 Protruding Objects, Ground and Floor Surfaces, Parking and Passenger Loading Zones, Curb 24 Ramps, Ramps, Stairs, Elevators, Platform Lifts (Wheelchair Lifts), Windows, Doors, Entrances, 25 Drinking Fountains and Water Coolers, Water Closets, Toilet Stalls, Urinals, Lavatories and 26 Mirrors, Sinks, Storage, Handrails, Grab Bars, and Controls and Operating Mechanisms, Alarms, 27 Detectable Warnings, Signage, and Telephones. These violations denied Plaintiff's Member and 28 Plaintiff(s) full and equal access to Defendants' facility. Thus, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s)

1 was subjected to discrimination pursuant to Civil Code §§ 51, 52, and 54.1 because Plaintiff's 2 Member and Plaintiff(s) was denied full, equal and safe access to Defendants' facility, causing 3 severe emotional distress. The Disabled Persons Act is found in sections 54 of the Civil Code, and 4 has been around in some form on the statute books since the late 1960's--more than 20 years before 5 the federal ADA. (See Stats. 1968, ch. 461.) The Disabled Persons Act begins with the statement in 6 subdivision (a) of section 54 that "Individuals with disabilities or medical conditions have the same 7 right as the general public to the full and free use of ... public facilities, and other public places." (β 8 54, subd. (a).) Section 54 is immediately followed by section 54.1, subdivision (a)(3) of which--in 9 contrast to the more spartan reference to the ADA in section 51--specifically incorporates ADA 10 regulations. The enforcement of section 54 is to be found in section 54.3. Subdivision (a)(3) of 11 section 54.1 provides: " 'Full and equal access,' for purposes of this section in its application to 12 transportation, means access that meets the standards of Titles II and III of the Americans with 13 Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) and federal regulations adopted pursuant thereto, 14 except that, if the laws of this state prescribe higher standards, it shall mean access that meets those 15 higher standards." Subdivision (a) of section 54.3 provides in its entirety: "Any person or persons, 16 firm or corporation who denies or interferes with admittance to or enjoyment of the public facilities 17 as specified in Sections 54 and 54.1 or otherwise interferes with the rights of an individual with a 18 disability under Section 54, 54.1, and 54.2 is liable for each offense for the actual damages and any 19 amount as may be determined by a jury, or the court sitting without a jury, up to a maximum of 20 three times the amount of actual damages but in no case less than one thousand dollars ($ 1,000), 21 and attorney's fees as may be determined by the court in addition thereto, suffered by any person 22 denied any of the rights provided in Sections 54, 54.1, and 54.2. 'Interfere' for purposes of this 23 section, includes, but is not limited to, preventing or causing the prevention of a guide dog, signal 24 dog, or service dog from carrying out its functions in assisting a disabled person." Section 54.3 was 25 construed in the 1990 Cafe Royale decision as providing for strict liability--that is, liability without 26 any need for intentional conduct--prior to the 1992 legislation which added both subdivision (f) to 27 section 51 and subdivision (c) of section 54 (back then in the context of the minimum penalty under 28

1 section 54.3 which was $ 250; now it is $ 1,000). Cafe Royale was a case decided prior to the 2 enactment of the ADA, and contains not a word about federal law. It was also decided exclusively 3 under Civil Code section 54 et seq., and contains not one word on the Unruh Act. In Cafe Royale, 4 a wheelchair user (a former deputy Attorney General and member of the Attorney General's task 5 force on disability) discovered that he could not reach the main dining area of a tiered restaurant on 6 his own, though the restaurant offered to lift him up the stairs. He declined an offer of help because 7 it would attract attention and because he might be dropped in the process of being bodily picked up
8 and moved. He sued the restaurant under section 54.3 because of the absence of ramps or elevators 9 to the second-tiered area. The restaurant thought that it had complied with the law because its 10 architect thought, based on an informal conversation with an employee of the San Francisco 11 building department, that a certain number of handicapped seating places was "all that was needed 12 for compliance." (See id. at p. 174.) The building department employee, however, gave the 13 restaurant architect erroneous advice. In fact, the State Building Standards Code (required by 14 Government Code section 4450 et seq) provided that all floors of a restaurant be on a common level 15 or else accessible by either ramps or elevators. While a hardship exemption might be obtained, 75
16 percent of the main dining area would still need to be handicap accessible, and the Cafe Royale's 17 option of seating wheelchair patrons in the bar or having them carried to the common area was a 18 violation. On appeal, the fact of the violation was understood by all parties: "All parties agreed that 19 Cafe Royale's seating capacity was in violation of the handicap access requirements." (Cafe Royale, 20 supra, 218 Cal. App. 3d at p. 174.) Hence issue was joined as to whether the restaurant's "good 21 faith" belief that it was "in compliance" (ibid.) was sufficient to deny the patron recovery under 22 section 54.3. The trial court thought so, but the appellate court disagreed. The appellate court 23 reasoned thusly: the fact that section 54.3 said a person who "denies or interferes with admittance 24 to or enjoyment of the public facilities as specified in section 54 and 54.1 ... is liable for each 25 offense ... but in no case less than two hundred fifty dollars ($ 250)" The court said: "The plain 26 meaning of this language is that ordinarily minimum statutory damages in the amount of $ 250 27 must be awarded for a denial of equal access in violation of section 54 et seq., notwithstanding the 28

1 defendant's intent." (Id. at p. 177.) The Cafe Royale court reasoned that an interpretation of section 2 54.3 that included an element of intentional violation would, because the level of compliance 3 would diminish, yield "a result that is clearly repugnant to the statutory purpose." Further, the 4 Donald case held a Plaintiff need not visit the facility to sue for compliance. (Id. at pp. 179-180.) So 5 the trial court reversed the trial court judgment awarding the plaintiff nothing, and concluded that 6 he was entitled to the $ 250 statutory minimum. (See id. at pp. 180-181.) Café Royale applies here.
7 Thus, Defendants' good faith efforts, if any, are irrelevant as is any reliance on a city building 8 inspector.

9 CLAIM II: Failure To Modify Practices, Policies And Procedures

10 32. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere herein this complaint, Defendants 11 failed and refused to provide a reasonable alternative by modifying its practices, policies, and 12 procedures in that they failed to have a scheme, plan, or design to assist Plaintiffs and/or others 13 similarly situated in entering and utilizing Defendants' services as required by Civil Code § 54.1.
14 Thus, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) were subjected to discrimination in violation of Civil 15 Code § 54.1.

16 CLAIM III: Violation Of The Unruh Act

17 33. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere herein this complaint and because 18 Defendants violated the Civil Code § 51 by failing to comply with 42 United States Code § 19 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv) and 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2), Defendants did and continue to knowingly 20 discriminate against Plaintiffs and persons similarly situated in violation of Civil Code §§ 51, 52, 21 and 54.1. Plaintiffs allege the access violations alleged here are so obvious as to implicate at least a 22 prima facie case of discriminatory intent.

23 34. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above, Claims I, II, and III of Plaintiffs' Second Cause 24 Of Action above, and the facts elsewhere herein this complaint, Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable 25 harm unless Defendants are ordered to remove architectural, non-architectural, and communication 26 barriers at Defendants' public accommodation. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants' discriminatory 27 conduct is capable of repetition, and this discriminatory repetition adversely impacts Plaintiffs and 28

1 a substantial segment of the disability community. Plaintiffs allege there is a state and national 2 public interest in requiring accessibility in places of public accommodation. Plaintiffs have no 3 adequate remedy at law to redress the discriminatory conduct of Defendants. Plaintiffs desire to 4 return to Defendants' places of business in the immediate future. Accordingly, the Plaintiffs allege 5 that a structural or mandatory injunction is necessary to enjoin compliance with state civil rights 6 laws enacted for the benefit of individuals with disabilities.

7 35. Wherefore, Plaintiffs pray for damages and relief as hereinafter stated.
8

9 DEMAND FOR JUDGMENT FOR RELIEF:

- 10 A. For injunctive relief pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188(a).
- 11 B. For damages pursuant to Cal. Civil Code § 52 or 54.3
- 12 C. For attorneys fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988, 42 U.S.C. § 12205, and Cal. Civil Code §
- 13 51, 52; 54.3;
- 14 D. A Jury Trial and;
- 15 E. For such other further relief as the court deems proper.

16 Respectfully submitted:
