CLASS ACTION

CIVIL COMPLAINT:
DISCRIMINATORY PRACTICES IN PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS
[42 U.S.C. 12182(a) ET. SEQ; CIVIL CODE 51, 52, 54, 54.1]

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL
[F.R.Civ.P. rule 38(b)]

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs herein complain, by filing this Civil Complaint in accordance with rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure in the Judicial District of the United States District Court of the SOUTHERN District of California, that Defendants have in the past, and presently are, engaging in discriminatory practices against individuals with disabilities, specifically including minorities with disabilities. Plaintiffs allege this civil action and others substantial similar thereto are necessary to

CR

1 compel access compliance because empirical research on the effectiveness of Title III of the 2 Americans with Disabilities Act indicates this Title has failed to achieve full and equal access 3 simply by the executive branch of the Federal Government funding and promoting voluntary 4 compliance efforts. Further, empirical research shows when individuals with disabilities give 5 actual notice of potential access problems to places of public accommodation without a federal 6 civil rights action, the public accommodations do not remove the access barriers. Therefore, 7 Plaintiffs make the following allegations in this federal civil rights action:

8 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9 1. The federal jurisdiction of this action is based on the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 10 United States Code 12101-12102, 12181-12183 and 12201, et seq. Venue in the Judicial District 11 of the United States District Court of the Southern District of California is in accordance with 28 12 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of Plaintiffs' claims arose within the Judicial District of 13 the United States District Court of the Southern District of California.

14 SUPPLEMENTAL JURISDICTION

15 2. The Judicial District of the United States District Court of the Southern District of 16 California has supplemental jurisdiction over the state claims as alleged in this Complaint pursuant 17 to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a). The reason supplemental jurisdiction is proper in this action is because all 18 the causes of action or claims derived from federal law and those arising under state law, as herein 19 alleged, arose from common nucleus of operative facts. The common nucleus of operative facts, 20 include, but are not limited to, the incidents where Plaintiffs were denied full and equal access to 21 Defendants' facilities, goods, and/or services in violation of both federal and state laws when they 22 attempted to enter, use, and/or exit Defendants' facilities as described below within this Complaint.
23 Further, due to this denial of full and equal access, TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR 24 CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES and other persons with disabilities were 25 injured. Based upon the said allegations, the state actions, as stated herein, are so related to the 26 federal actions that they form part of the same case or controversy and the actions would ordinarily 27 be expected to be tried in one judicial proceeding.
28

NAMED DEFENDANTS AND NAMED PLAINTIFF

1
2 3. Defendants are, and, at all times mentioned herein, were, a business or corporation or 3 franchise organized and existing and/or doing business under the laws of the State of California.
4 Plaintiffs are further informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants TAVLARIDIS 5 KURIAKI V SEPARATE TRUST (06-21-01) are the owners, operators, and/or lessors of the real 6 property. As to Defendants and the property the public record reveals:

7 Buyer: TAVLARIDIS KURIAKI V SEPARATE TRUST (06-21-01)

8 Buyer Mailing Address: 2475 Montgomery Avenue, Encinitas, CA 92024

9 Property Address: 3502 Fairmount Avenue, San Diego, CA 92105-3420

10 Assessor's Parcel Number: 476-022-16

11 DBA Name: CANDYLAND MINI-MART TUTTIFRUTI

12 Business Address: 3502 Fairmount Avenue, San Diego, CA 92105-3420

13 Contact Name: Yolanda Jenkins

14 4. The words "Plaintiffs" and "Plaintiff's Member" as used herein specifically include the 15 organization and TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL 16 DISABILITIES and persons associated with its Members who accompanied Members to 17 Defendants' facilities. Defendants Does 1 through 10, were at all times relevant herein 18 subsidiaries, employers, employees, agents, of CANDYLAND MINI-MART TUTTIFRUTI; 19 YOLANDA JENKINS; and TAVLARIDIS KURIAKI V SEPARATE TRUST (06-21-01).
20 Plaintiffs are ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 21 10, inclusive, and therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs will pray 22 leave of the court to amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the Does when 23 ascertained.

24 5. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants and each of them 25 herein were, at all times relevant to the action, the owner, lessor, lessee, franchiser, franchisee, 26 general partner, limited partner, agent, employee, representing partner, or joint venturer of the 27 remaining Defendants and were acting within the course and scope of that relationship. Plaintiffs 28

1 are further informed and believe, and thereon allege, that each of the Defendants herein gave 2 consent to, ratified, and/or authorized the acts alleged herein to each of the remaining Defendants.

3 STATEWIDE CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS UNDER FED.R.CIV.P. 23(b) AS TO ALL
4 DEFENDANTS

5 6. Plaintiffs are members of a group within the State of California composed of persons with a 6 wide range of disabilities, limited to persons who use wheelchairs for mobility, who must be able to 7 access retail merchandise establishments, like Defendants' establishments located within the 8 facility in which CANDYLAND MINI-MART TUTTIFRUTI is located. Plaintiffs are precluded 9 from equal access to Defendants' establishments so meaningfully because the establishments, and 10 each of them, fail to provide access for members of the disability community who use a wheelchair 11 for mobility to disabled parking facilities, exterior path of travel facilities, entrance facilities, 12 interior path of travel facilities, and display facilities. The Supreme Court of the United States has 13 held as long as the class representative provides adequate representation for the class' interests, the 14 court has the power to adjudicate the rights and obligations of all class members – even those who 15 would otherwise be beyond the reach of its personal jurisdiction. Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 16 472 US 797 (1985). This case stands for the proposition that minimum contacts are not required 17 with nonresident members of a plaintiff class because, “the burdens placed by a State upon absent 18 class action plaintiff are not of the same order or magnitude as those it places on an absent 19 defendant.” Id. Plaintiffs allege they will insure class members shall receive adequate notice of the 20 proceedings and the opportunity to “opt out,” if required. Defendants have conducted themselves 21 such as to establish a pattern and practice of architectural discrimination. Plaintiffs allege that 22 Defendants have control over each and every facility, establishment, and/or business located within 23 the Defendant Landlords' facilities in which Defendant CANDYLAND MINI-MART 24 TUTTIFRUTI is located. Accordingly, Plaintiffs allege Defendants are responsible for removing 25 architectural barriers at Defendants' facilities and the establishment/business contained therein.
26 For the aforementioned reasons, Plaintiffs allege they are proper class representatives for members 27 of the disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility because the members of the 28 disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility are so numerous that joinder is

1 impracticable due to the fact more than one hundred (100) persons fall within the membership 2 description. Also, the questions of law or fact are so common because the members of the disability 3 community who use a wheelchair for mobility are being denied their civil rights under federal and 4 state laws – that is, each member of the disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility 5 suffered substantially similar violations relating to exterior path of travel facilities, entrance 6 facilities, restrooms, interior path of travel facilities, and display facilities. Further, the claims or 7 defenses of the representative parties are typical – Plaintiffs have the right to access facilities, 8 establishments, and businesses like those within the facility in which Defendant CANDYLAND 9 MINI-MART TUTTIFRUTI is located for many reasons such as the purchase of retail merchandise.
10 Defendants’ facilities are open to the general public and Plaintiffs have been denied access because 11 of violations, as outlined above and specifically addressed elsewhere within this Complaint.
12 Additionally, Plaintiffs, as the named representatives, will fairly and adequately represent the 13 interests of the class because Plaintiffs and the members of the disability community in the State of 14 California who use a wheelchair for mobility have suffered substantially similar violations. Finally, 15 a pattern and practice exists on the part of Defendants, and each of them, of architectural 16 discrimination at their public facilities located within the State of California. On information and 17 good faith belief, Plaintiffs thereon allege that Defendants, prior to the passing of the Americans 18 With Disabilities Act in 1992, conceived, commissioned, designed, and implemented among other 19 things, a design for their public facilities, including, but not limited to disabled parking facilities, 20 exterior path of travel facilities, restroom, entrance facilities, interior path of travel facilities, and 21 display facilities, which do not meet the minimal standards outlined under the federal regulations 22 known as the Americans With Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines (“ADAAG”) and state 23 regulations, also known as Title 24 of the California Building Code, and to which non-compliant 24 plan they continue to utilize to the injury of the members of the class. For these reasons and the 25 facts as stated herein, Plaintiffs have the right to maintain this statewide class action pursuant to 26 Fed.R.Civ.P. Rule 23(b).

28

CONCISE SET OF FACTS

1
2 7. In 2006, Plaintiff's Member went to the CANDYLAND MINI-MART TUTTIFRUTI. As 3 Said Member is unable to walk Plaintiff's Member uses a wheelchair. Plaintiff's Member 4 experienced architectural barriers at the place at which impeded his access. Plaintiff can prove 5 these barriers as Plaintiff conducted a survey of Defendants' facility and Plaintiff's counsel will 6 provide it to competent defense counsel. Plaintiff's Members allege its visually and hearing 7 impaired members desire to go to Defendants' facility but cannot because of lack of auxiliary aids.
8 Plaintiffs specifically allege that Defendants knew, to a substantial certainty, that the architectural 9 barriers precluded wheelchair access. First, Plaintiffs will prove that Defendants had actual 10 knowledge that the architectural barriers precluded wheelchair access - that it would be hard to 11 believe that noncompliance with ADAAG as to accessible entrances could be other than 12 intentional. Second, due to the abundance of ADA information and constant news covers of ADA 13 lawsuits, Defendants had actual knowledge of the ADA and decided deliberately not to remove 14 architectural barriers. Third, Defendants have no plans to remodel. Fourth, it would be hard to 15 believe that Defendants did not have actual knowledge of ADA given all the ADA public 16 awareness campaigns, the abundance of free ADA information and the media's constant ADA 17 coverage. Fifth, a human being acting for the defendants made a conscious decision as to how to 18 proceed given the presence of the architectural barriers. Plaintiffs allege any alternative methods 19 preclude integration of wheelchair patrons, as it requires them to use a second-class entrance. Also, 20 expert testimony will show the facility contained inaccessible features. Plaintiffs allege businesses 21 often state that they have few customers with disabilities. Plaintiffs allege such customers avoid 22 patronizing inaccessible business and are deterred from patronizing such businesses. The courts 23 have recognized deterrence-based damage claims under Civil Code 54.3 and 52. Since California 24 courts have held that the California disability access laws manifest an intent on the part of the 25 legislature that they be interpreted in a manner that maximizes incentives for compliance, (see 26 Donald, 266 Cal. Rptr. at 808-11) the courts conclude that application of this canon of construction 27 requires that 54.1 and 51, and their respective damages provisions, 54.3 and 52, be interpreted as 28

1 extending to claims based on incidents of deterrence. The courts therefore hold that where a 2 plaintiff can prove that violations of applicable California disability access standards deterred her 3 on a particular occasion from attempting to attend a place of public accommodation, that plaintiff 4 states a claim for relief under California Civil Code 54.1 and 51 and, in particular, for damages, 5 under 54.3 and 52. Plaintiffs allege people with disabilities still face systemic discrimination each 6 and every day. One of the most debilitating forms of discrimination is segregation imposed by 7 others. Discrimination also includes exclusion, or denial of benefits, services, or other 8 opportunities that are as effective and meaningful as those provided to others. Discrimination 9 results from actions or inactions that discriminate by effect as well as by intent or design.
10 Discrimination also includes harms resulting from the construction of transportation, architectural, 11 and communication barriers and the adoption or application of standards and criteria and practices 12 and procedures based on thoughtlessness or indifference-of benign neglect. Discrimination also 13 includes harms affecting individuals with a history of disability, and those regarded by others as 14 having a disability as well as persons associated with such individuals that are based on false 15 presumptions, generalizations, misperceptions, patronizing attitudes, ignorance, irrational fears, and 16 pernicious mythologies. Discrimination also includes the effects a person's disability may have on 17 others. The ADA aim is: (1) To provide a clear and comprehensive national mandate for the 18 elimination of discrimination against individuals with disabilities; [and] (2) to provide clear, strong, 19 consistent, enforceable standards addressing discrimination against individuals with disabilities.
20 (42 U.S.C. § 12101(b)(1), (2) (Supp. II 1990)) Plaintiffs allege the legislative history of the Act, 21 which reflects congressional, concerns over the deleterious effects of discrimination against people 22 with disabilities. As a result, Congress incorporated within Title II of the ADA the remedial 23 provision in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. (As amended 29 U.S.C. § 794a)(42 24 U.S.C. § 12133)(See Smith v. Barton, 914 F.2d 1330, 1336 (9th Cir. 1990), cert. denied, 111 S.Ct.
25 2825 (1991)) Much has been written recently about the ADA and its mechanisms of enforcement.
26 (See e.g., Doran v. Del Taco, Inc., --- F.Supp.2d ---- (C.D. Cal. June 9, 2005); Molski, 347
27 F.Supp.2d at 862-63; Parr v. L & L Drive-Inn Restaurant, 96 F.Supp.2d 1065, 1070-71 28

1 (D.Haw.2000)) For purposes of this suit, it is sufficient to note that the statute creates a private 2 right of action through which a litigant may seek injunctive relief as well as attorneys' fees and 3 costs. (42 U.S.C. § 2188(a)) Plaintiffs allege that it cannot be said that because an attorney has 4 chosen to specialize in an area, which provides statutory attorneys fees his practice is necessarily 5 suspect. Class actions, antitrust, and consumer protection statutes are just some of the examples 6 where the legislature has made a determination that society will benefit from private attorneys 7 general. The ADA is but another example. Plaintiff TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR 8 CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES is an organization that advocates on the 9 behalf of children and others with disabilities specifically including adults who use wheelchairs 10 when their civil rights and liberties have been violated. Plaintiff's Member visited the place in 2006
11 and plans on returning to the place and he encountered architectural barriers there. Association 12 standing requires that (1) its members would otherwise have standing to sue in their own right, (2) 13 the interests the association seeks to protect are germane to the organization's purpose and (3) 14 neither the claim asserted nor the relief requested requires the participation of individual members.
15 Hunt v. Washington Apple Advertising Commission, 432 U.S. 333, 343; Greater Los Angeles 16 Council On Deafness, Inc. v. Baldrige, 827 F.2d 1353, 1358 (9th Cir. 1987). Plaintiffs have 17 standing to bring this action. Plaintiff Association has at least four members who use wheelchairs 18 as they cannot walk at all. The purpose of the Association is to fight to remove access and 19 architectural barriers.
20

21 8. Plaintiff's Member has a physical impairment and due to this impairment he has learned to 22 successfully operate a wheelchair. Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) has physical impairments 23 because her conditions affect one or more of the following body systems: neurological, 24 musculoskeletal, special sense organs, and/or cardiovascular. Further, Plaintiff's Member and 25 Plaintiff(s) said physical impairments substantially limits one or more of the following major life 26 activities: walking. In addition, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) cannot perform one or more of 27 the said major life activities in the manner, speed, and duration when compared to the average 28 person. Moreover, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) has a history of or has been classified as 1 having a physical impairment as required by 42 U.S.C. § 12102(2)(A).

2 9. Plaintiff's Members expressly intend to patronize the establishment and the property that is 3 the subject of this Complaint in the immediate future.

4 10. When Plaintiff's Member researched Defendants' facilities, he discovered he would be 5 unable to use the public accommodations' at Defendants' business establishments because they 6 failed to comply with ADA Access Guidelines For Buildings and Facilities (hereafter referred to as 7 "ADAAG") and/or California's Title 24 Building Code Requirements as specified herein.
8 Defendants failed to remove access barriers within the parking public accommodations of 9 Defendants' establishment. Plaintiff's Member was deterred from patronizing the facility because 10 he experienced difficulty using the entrance and exterior path of travel access barriers at 11 Defendants' facility.

12 11. The architectural regulations or "design standards" implemented by the federal ADA are 13 often referred to in the literature as "ADAAGs," which is an acronym for "ADA Architectural 14 Guidelines." (See Independent Living I, 982 F. Supp. at pp. 707-708 ["The guidelines issued by the 15 Access Board are denominated the 'ADA Accessibility Guidelines' ('ADAAG.'). The design 16 standards enacted by the Attorney General are identical to the ADAAGs, but are denominated as 17 'Standards.' Despite the technical distinction, the two terms are often used interchangeably."]; 18 Access Now, Inc. v. Ambulatory Surgery Center Group, Ltd. (S.D. Fla. 2001) 146 F. Supp. 2d 19 1334, 1336 ["These guidelines are called ... ("ADAAG")"].) The "ADAAGs" are found in 20 Appendix A to Part 36 of title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The ADAAG violations 21 alleged here are basically so intuitive that it would be hard to believe that noncompliance with them 22 could be other than intentional.

23 12. Plaintiff(s) was deterred from patronizing the facility due to the alleged ADA violations 24 and/or alleged architectural barriers outlined in Paragraphs 10 through 11 above.

25 13. While Plaintiff's Member expressly wants to patronize Defendant's establishment and the 26 property that is the subject of this Complaint in the immediate future, Plaintiff and Plaintiff's 27 Member is expressly deterred from returning to the establishment and the property that is the 28

1 subject of this Complaint due to the existence of the architectural barriers outlined above in 2 Paragraphs 10 through 11.

3 14. Pursuant to federal and state law, Defendants are required to remove barriers to their 4 existing facilities. Further, Defendants had actual knowledge of their barrier removal duties under 5 the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Civil Code before January 26, 1992. Also, Defendants 6 should have known that individuals with disabilities are not required to give notice to a 7 governmental agency before filing suit alleging Defendants failed to remove architectural barriers.

8 15. Plaintiffs believe and herein allege Defendants' facilities have access violations not 9 directly known by Plaintiff which preclude or limit access by other members of Plaintiff 10 organization or other persons with disabilities, including but not limited to violations relating to 11 Space Allowance and Reach Ranges, Accessible Route, Protruding Objects, Ground and Floor
12 Surfaces, Parking and Passenger Loading Zones, Curb Ramps, Ramps, Stairs, Elevators, Platform
13 Lifts (Wheelchair Lifts), Windows, Doors, Entrances, Drinking Fountains and Water Coolers, 14 Water Closets, Toilet Stalls, Urinals, Lavatories and Mirrors, Sinks, Storage, Handrails, Grab Bars, 15 and Controls and Operating Mechanisms, Alarms, Detectable Warnings, Signage, and Telephones.
16 Accordingly, Plaintiffs allege Defendants are required to remove all architectural barriers, known or 17 unknown. Also, Plaintiffs allege Defendants are required to utilize the ADA checklist for Readily 18 Achievable Barrier Removal approved by the United States Department of Justice and created by 19 Adaptive Environments.
20

21 16. Based on these facts, Plaintiffs allege Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) were 22 discriminated against each time he patronized Defendants' establishment. Plaintiff's Member was 23 extremely upset due to Defendants' conduct.

24 NOTICE

25 17. Plaintiffs are not required to provide notice to the defendants prior to filing a complaint.
26 (See Botosan v. Paul McNally Realty, 216 F.3d 827, 832 (9th Cir 2000))

4 collectively hereinafter as "Defendants."

5 19. Plaintiffs aver that the Defendants are liable for the following claims as alleged below:

7 DISCRIMINATORY PRACTICES IN PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS

8 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS- Claims Under The Americans
9 With Disabilities Act Of 1990

10 Claim I

11 19. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs on the basis of 12 disability in the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 13 accommodations of any place of public accommodation as Defendants own, lease (or lease to), or 14 operate a place of public accommodation in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

15 Claim II

16 20. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs directly, or 17 through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements, to a denial of the opportunity of the 18 individual or class to participate in or benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, 19 advantages, or accommodations of an entity in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

20 Claim III

21 21. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as it is 22 discriminatory to afford an individual or class of individuals, on the basis of a disability or 23 disabilities of such individual or class, directly, or through contractual, licensing, or other 24 arrangements with the opportunity to participate in or benefit from a good, service, facility, 25 privilege, advantage, or accommodation that is not equal to that afforded to other individuals in 26 violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

27 Claim IV
28

1 22. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as it is 2 discriminatory to provide an individual or class of individuals, on the basis of a disability or 3 disabilities of such individual or class, directly, or through contractual, licensing, or other 4 arrangements with a good, service, facility, privilege, advantage, or accommodation that is different 5 or separate from that provided to other individuals.

6 Claim V

7 23. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendants 8 failed to afforded to an individual with a disability in the most integrated setting appropriate to the 9 needs of the individual in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

10 Claim VI

11 24. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendants 12 utilized standards or criteria or methods of administration that have the effect of discriminating on 13 the basis of disability; or that perpetuate the discrimination of others who are subject to common 14 administrative control in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

15 Claim VII

16 25. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as it is 17 discriminatory to exclude or otherwise deny equal goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, 18 accommodations, or other opportunities to an individual or entity because of the known disability 19 of an individual with whom the individual or entity is known to have a relationship or association 20 in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182. See Niece v. Fitzner 922 F. Supp. 1208 (1996)

21 Claim VIII

22 26. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendants 23 engaged in the following specific prohibitions: (i) the imposition or application of eligibility criteria 24 that screen out or tend to screen out an individual with a disability or any class of individuals with 25 disabilities from fully and equally enjoying any goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 26 accommodations, unless such criteria can be shown to be necessary for the provision of the goods, 27 services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations being offered; (ii) a failure to make 28

1 reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures, when such modifications are 2 necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations to 3 individuals with disabilities;

4 27. (iii) a failure to take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a 5 disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other 6 individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services; (iv) a failure to remove 7 architectural barriers, and communication barriers that are structural in nature, in existing facilities 8 in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

9 Claim IX

10 28. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendant 11 failed to demonstrate that the removal of a barrier is not readily achievable, and made such goods, 12 services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations available through alternative 13 methods in a segregated manner in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

14 Claim X

15 29. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendants 16 altered the use of their establishment in a manner that affected or could have affected the usability 17 of the facility or part thereof and failed to make alterations in such a manner that, to the maximum 18 extent feasible, the altered portions of the facility are readily accessible to and usable by individuals 19 with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12183.

20
22 30. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment and relief as hereinafter set forth.

23 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS - CLAIMS UNDER 24 CALIFORNIA ACCESSIBILITY LAWS

25 CLAIM I: Denial Of Full And Equal Access

26 31. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere in this complaint, Plaintiff's 27 Member and Plaintiff(s) was denied full and equal access to Defendants' goods, services, facilities, 28 privileges, advantages, or accommodations within a public accommodation owned, leased, and/or

1 operated by Defendants as required by Civil Code Sections 54 and 54.1. Defendants' facility
2 violated California's Title 24 Accessible Building Code by failing to provide access to Defendants' 3 facilities due to violations pertaining to the Space Allowance and Reach Ranges, Accessible Route, 4 Protruding Objects, Ground and Floor Surfaces, Parking and Passenger Loading Zones, Curb 5 Ramps, Ramps, Stairs, Elevators, Platform Lifts (Wheelchair Lifts), Windows, Doors, Entrances, 6 Drinking Fountains and Water Coolers, Water Closets, Toilet Stalls, Urinals, Lavatories and 7 Mirrors, Sinks, Storage, Handrails, Grab Bars, and Controls and Operating Mechanisms, Alarms, 8 Detectable Warnings, Signage, and Telephones. These violations denied Plaintiff's Member and 9 Plaintiff(s) full and equal access to Defendants' facility. Thus, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) 10 was subjected to discrimination pursuant to Civil Code §§ 51, 52, and 54.1 because Plaintiff's 11 Member and Plaintiff(s) was denied full, equal and safe access to Defendants' facility, causing 12 severe emotional distress. The Disabled Persons Act is found in sections 54 of the Civil Code, and 13 has been around in some form on the statute books since the late 1960's--more than 20 years before 14 the federal ADA. (See Stats. 1968, ch. 461.) The Disabled Persons Act begins with the statement in 15 subdivision (a) of section 54 that "Individuals with disabilities or medical conditions have the same 16 right as the general public to the full and free use of ... public facilities, and other public places." (β 17 54, subd. (a).) Section 54 is immediately followed by section 54.1, subdivision (a)(3) of which--in 18 contrast to the more spartan reference to the ADA in section 51--specifically incorporates ADA 19 regulations. The enforcement of section 54 is to be found in section 54.3. Subdivision (a)(3) of 20 section 54.1 provides: " 'Full and equal access,' for purposes of this section in its application to 21 transportation, means access that meets the standards of Titles II and III of the Americans with 22 Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) and federal regulations adopted pursuant thereto, 23 except that, if the laws of this state prescribe higher standards, it shall mean access that meets those 24 higher standards." Subdivision (a) of section 54.3 provides in its entirety: "Any person or persons, 25 firm or corporation who denies or interferes with admittance to or enjoyment of the public facilities 26 as specified in Sections 54 and 54.1 or otherwise interferes with the rights of an individual with a 27 disability under Section 54, 54.1, and 54.2 is liable for each offense for the actual damages and any 28

1 amount as may be determined by a jury, or the court sitting without a jury, up to a maximum of 2 three times the amount of actual damages but in no case less than one thousand dollars ($ 1,000), 3 and attorney's fees as may be determined by the court in addition thereto, suffered by any person 4 denied any of the rights provided in Sections 54, 54.1, and 54.2. 'Interfere' for purposes of this 5 section, includes, but is not limited to, preventing or causing the prevention of a guide dog, signal 6 dog, or service dog from carrying out its functions in assisting a disabled person." Section 54.3 was 7 construed in the 1990 Cafe Royale decision as providing for strict liability--that is, liability without 8 any need for intentional conduct--prior to the 1992 legislation which added both subdivision (f) to 9 section 51 and subdivision (c) of section 54 (back then in the context of the minimum penalty under 10 section 54.3 which was $ 250; now it is $ 1,000). Cafe Royale was a case decided prior to the 11 enactment of the ADA, and contains not a word about federal law. It was also decided exclusively 12 under Civil Code section 54 et seq., and contains not one word on the Unruh Act. In Cafe Royale, 13 a wheelchair user (a former deputy Attorney General and member of the Attorney General's task 14 force on disability) discovered that he could not reach the main dining area of a tiered restaurant on 15 his own, though the restaurant offered to lift him up the stairs. He declined an offer of help because 16 it would attract attention and because he might be dropped in the process of being bodily picked up 17 and moved. He sued the restaurant under section 54.3 because of the absence of ramps or elevators 18 to the second-tiered area. The restaurant thought that it had complied with the law because its 19 architect thought, based on an informal conversation with an employee of the San Francisco 20 building department, that a certain number of handicapped seating places was "all that was needed 21 for compliance." (See id. at p. 174.) The building department employee, however, gave the 22 restaurant architect erroneous advice. In fact, the State Building Standards Code (required by 23 Government Code section 4450 et seq) provided that all floors of a restaurant be on a common level 24 or else accessible by either ramps or elevators. While a hardship exemption might be obtained, 75 25 percent of the main dinning area would still need to be handicap accessible, and the Cafe Royale's 26 option of seating wheelchair patrons in the bar or having them carried to the common area was a 27 violation. On appeal, the fact of the violation was understood by all parties: "All parties agreed that 28

1 Cafe Royale's seating capacity was in violation of the handicap access requirements." (Cafe Royale, 2 supra, 218 Cal. App. 3d at p. 174.) Hence issue was joined as to whether the restaurant's "good 3 faith" belief that it was "in compliance" (ibid.) was sufficient to deny the patron recovery under 4 section 54.3. The trial court thought so, but the appellate court disagreed. The appellate court 5 reasoned thusly: the fact that section 54.3 said a person who "denies or interferes with admittance 6 to or enjoyment of the public facilities as specified in section 54 and 54.1 ... is liable for each 7 offense ... but in no case less than two hundred fifty dollars ($ 250)" The court said: "The plain 8 meaning of this language is that ordinarily minimum statutory damages in the amount of $ 250 9 must be awarded for a denial of equal access in violation of section 54 et seq., notwithstanding the 10 defendant's intent." (Id. at p. 177.) The Cafe Royale court reasoned that an interpretation of section 11 54.3 that included an element of intentional violation would, because the level of compliance 12 would diminish, yield "a result that is clearly repugnant to the statutory purpose." Further, the 13 Donald case held a Plaintiff need not visit the facility to sue for compliance. (Id. at pp. 179-180.) So 14 the trial court reversed the trial court judgment awarding the plaintiff nothing, and concluded that 15 he was entitled to the $ 250 statutory minimum. (See id. at pp. 180-181.) Café Royale applies here.
16 Thus, Defendants' good faith efforts, if any, are irrelevant as is any reliance on a city building 17 inspector.

19 20 CLAIM II: Failure To Modify Practices, Policies And Procedures

21 32. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere herein this complaint, Defendants 22 failed and refused to provide a reasonable alternative by modifying its practices, policies, and 23 procedures in that they failed to have a scheme, plan, or design to assist Plaintiffs and/or others 24 similarly situated in entering and utilizing Defendants' services as required by Civil Code § 54.1.
25 Thus, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) were subjected to discrimination in violation of Civil 26 Code § 54.1.

27
28 CLAIM III: Violation Of The Unruh Act

1 33. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere herein this complaint and because 2 Defendants violated the Civil Code § 51 by failing to comply with 42 United States Code §
3 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv) and 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2), Defendants did and continue to knowingly 4 discriminate against Plaintiffs and persons similarly situated in violation of Civil Code §§ 51, 52, 5 and 54.1. Plaintiffs allege the access violations alleged here are so obvious as to implicate at least a 6 prima facie case of discriminatory intent.

7 34. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above, Claims I, II, and III of Plaintiffs' Second Cause 8 Of Action above, and the facts elsewhere herein this complaint, Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable 9 harm unless Defendants are ordered to remove architectural, non-architectural, and communication 10 barriers at Defendants' public accommodation. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants' discriminatory 11 conduct is capable of repetition, and this discriminatory repetition adversely impacts Plaintiffs and 12 a substantial segment of the disability community. Plaintiffs allege there is a state and national 13 public interest in requiring accessibility in places of public accommodation. Plaintiffs have no 14 adequate remedy at law to redress the discriminatory conduct of Defendants. Plaintiffs desire to 15 return to Defendants' places of business in the immediate future. Accordingly, the Plaintiffs allege 16 that a structural or mandatory injunction is necessary to enjoin compliance with state civil rights 17 laws enacted for the benefit of individuals with disabilities.

18 35. Wherefore, Plaintiffs pray for damages and relief as hereinafter stated.
19
