CLASS ACTION

CIVIL COMPLAINT:
DISCRIMINATORY PRACTICES IN PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS
[42 U.S.C. 12182(a) ET. SEQ; CIVIL CODE
51, 52, 54, 54.1]

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL
[F.R.Civ.P. rule 38(b)]

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs herein complain, by filing this Civil Complaint in accordance with rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure in the Judicial District of the United States District Court of the Southern District of California, that Defendants have in the past, and presently are, engaging in discriminatory practices against individuals with disabilities, specifically including minorities with disabilities. Plaintiffs allege this civil action and others substantial similar thereto are necessary to compel access compliance because empirical research on the effectiveness of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act indicates this Title has failed to achieve full and equal access simply by the executive branch of the Federal Government

CP

1 funding and promoting voluntary compliance efforts. Further, empirical research shows when individuals 2 with disabilities give actual notice of potential access problems to places of public accommodation without 3 a federal civil rights action, the public accommodations do not remove the access barriers. Therefore, 4 Plaintiffs make the following allegations in this federal civil rights action:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. The federal jurisdiction of this action is based on the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 United 7 States Code 12101-12102, 12181-12183 and 12201, et seq. Venue in the Judicial District of the United 8 States District Court of the Southern District of California is in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)
9 because a substantial part of Plaintiffs' claims arose within the Judicial District of the United States District 10 Court of the Southern District of California.

11 SUPPLEMENTAL JURISDICTION

12 2. The Judicial District of the United States District Court of the Southern District of California has 13 supplemental jurisdiction over the state claims as alleged in this Complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).
14 The reason supplemental jurisdiction is proper in this action is because all the causes of action or claims 15 derived from federal law and those arising under state law, as herein alleged, arose from common nucleus 16 of operative facts. The common nucleus of operative facts, include, but are not limited to, the incidents 17 where Plaintiffs were denied full and equal access to Defendants' facilities, goods, and/or services in 18 violation of both federal and state laws when they attempted to enter, use, and/or exit Defendants' facilities 19 as described below within this Complaint. Further, due to this denial of full and equal access, TRIPPLE
20 AAA ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES and other persons 21 with disabilities were injured. Based upon the said allegations, the state actions, as stated herein, are so 22 related to the federal actions that they form part of the same case or controversy and the actions would 23 ordinarily be expected to be tried in one judicial proceeding.

24 NAMED DEFENDANTS AND NAMED PLAINTIFF

25 3. Defendants are, and, at all times mentioned herein, were, a business or corporation or franchise 26 organized and existing and/or doing business under the laws of the State of California. Plaintiffs are further 27 informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants SANTA CLARA BEACH & BAY MOTEL; 28

1 SAN-ERN INC; AMERICAN A-ONE INVESTMENT CO are the owners, operators, and/or lessors of 2 the real property, as well as the business operated thereon. As to Defendants and the property the public

4. The words "Plaintiffs" and "Plaintiff's Member" as used herein specifically include the organization and TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES and persons associated with its Members who accompanied Members to Defendants' facilities. Defendants Does 1 through 10, were at all times relevant herein subsidiaries, employers, employees, agents, of SANTA CLARA BEACH & BAY MOTEL; SAN-ERN INC; AMERICAN A-ONE INVESTMENT CO.

Plaintiffs are ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 10, inclusive, and therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs will pray leave of the court to amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the Does when ascertained.

5. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants and each of them herein were, at all times relevant to the action, the owner, lessor, lessee, franchiser, franchisee, general partner, limited partner, agent, employee, representing partner, or joint venturer of the remaining Defendants and were acting within the course and scope of that relationship. Plaintiffs are further informed and believe, and thereon allege, that each of the Defendants herein gave consent to, ratified, and/or authorized the acts alleged herein to each of the remaining Defendants.

STATEWIDE CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS UNDER FED.R.CIV.P. 23(b) AS TO ALL DEFENDANTS

6. Plaintiffs are members of a group within the State of California composed of persons with a wide range of disabilities, limited to persons who use wheelchairs for mobility, who must be able to access retail

1 merchandise establishments, like Defendants' establishments located within the facility in which SANTA
2 CLARA BEACH & BAY MOTEL; SAN-ERN INC; AMERICAN A-ONE INVESTMENT CO is 3 located. Plaintiffs are precluded from equal access to Defendants' establishment so meaningfully because 4 the establishment fails to provide access for members of the disability community who use a wheelchair for 5 mobility to disabled parking facilities, exterior path of travel facilities, entrance facilities, interior path of 6 travel facilities, and display facilities. The Supreme Court of the United States has held as long as the class 7 representative provides adequate representation for the class' interests, the court has the power to 8 adjudicate the rights and obligations of all class members – even those who would otherwise be beyond the 9 reach of its personal jurisdiction. Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 US 797 (1985). This case stands for 10 the proposition that minimum contacts are not required with nonresident members of a plaintiff class 11 because, “the burdens placed by a State upon absent class action plaintiff are not of the same order or 12 magnitude as those it places on an absent defendant.” Id. Plaintiffs allege they will insure class members 13 shall receive adequate notice of the proceedings and the opportunity to “opt out,” if required. Defendants 14 have conducted themselves such as to establish a pattern and practice of architectural discrimination.
15 Plaintiffs allege that Defendants have control over each and every facility, establishment, and/or business 16 located within the Defendant Landlords' facilities in which Defendant SANTA CLARA BEACH & BAY
17 MOTEL; SAN-ERN INC; AMERICAN A-ONE INVESTMENT CO is located. Accordingly, Plaintiffs 18 allege Defendants are responsible for removing architectural barriers at Defendants' facilities and the 19 establishment/business contained therein. For the aforementioned reasons, Plaintiffs allege they are proper 20 class representatives for members of the disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility because 21 the members of the disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility are so numerous that joinder is 22 impracticable due to the fact more than one hundred (100) persons fall within the membership description.
23 Also, the questions of law or fact are so common because the members of the disability community who use 24 a wheelchair for mobility are being denied their civil rights under federal and state laws – that is, each 25 member of the disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility suffered substantially similar 26 violations relating to exterior path of travel facilities, entrance facilities, restrooms, interior path of travel 27 facilities, and display facilities. Further, the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical – 28

1 Plaintiffs have the right to access facilities, establishments, and businesses like those within the facility in 2 which Defendant SANTA CLARA BEACH & BAY MOTEL; SAN-ERN INC; AMERICAN A-ONE
3 INVESTMENT CO is located for many reasons such as the purchase of retail merchandise. Defendants' 4 facilities are open to the general public and Plaintiffs have been denied access because of violations, as 5 outlined above and specifically addressed elsewhere within this Complaint. Additionally, Plaintiffs, as the 6 named representatives, will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the class because Plaintiffs and 7 the members of the disability community in the State of California who use a wheelchair for mobility have 8 suffered substantially similar violations. Finally, a pattern and practice exists on the part of Defendants, 9 and each of them, of architectural discrimination at their public facilities located within the State of 10 California. On information and good faith belief, Plaintiffs thereon allege that Defendants, prior to the 11 passing of the Americans With Disabilities Act in 1992, conceived, commissioned, designed, and 12 implemented among other things, a design for their public facilities, including, but not limited to disabled 13 parking facilities, exterior path of travel facilities, restroom, entrance facilities, interior path of travel 14 facilities, and display facilities, which do not meet the minimal standards outlined under the federal 15 regulations known as the Americans With Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines ("ADAAG") and state 16 regulations, also known as Title 24 of the California Building Code, and to which non-compliant plan they 17 continue to utilize to the injury of the members of the class. For these reasons and the facts as stated 18 herein, Plaintiffs have the right to maintain this statewide class action pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. Rule 23(b).

19 20 CONCISE SET OF FACTS

21 7. In 2006, Plaintiff's Member went to the SANTA CLARA BEACH & BAY MOTEL; SAN-ERN
22 INC; AMERICAN A-ONE INVESTMENT CO. As Said Member is unable to walk Plaintiff's Member 23 uses a wheelchair. Plaintiff's Member experienced architectural barriers at the place at which impeded his 24 access. Plaintiff can prove these barriers as Plaintiff conducted a survey of Defendants' facility and 25 Plaintiff's counsel will provide it to competent defense counsel. Plaintiff's Members allege its visually and 26 hearing impaired members desire to go to Defendants' facility but cannot because of lack of auxiliary aids.
27 Plaintiffs specifically allege that Defendants knew, to a substantial certainty, that the architectural barriers 28 precluded wheelchair access. First, Plaintiffs will prove that Defendants had actual knowledge that the

1 architectural barriers precluded wheelchair access - that it would be hard to believe that noncompliance 2 with ADAAG as to accessible entrances could be other than intentional. Second, due to the abundance of 3 ADA information and constant news covers of ADA lawsuits, Defendants had actual knowledge of the 4 ADA and decided deliberately not to remove architectural barriers. Third, Defendants have no plans to 5 remodel. Fourth, it would be hard to believe that Defendants did not have actual knowledge of ADA given 6 all the ADA public awareness campaigns, the abundance of free ADA information and the media's constant 7 ADA coverage. Fifth, a human being acting for the defendants made a conscious decision as to how to 8 proceed given the presence of the architectural barriers. Plaintiffs allege any alternative methods preclude 9 integration of wheelchair patrons, as it requires them to use a second-class entrance. Also, expert testimony 10 will show the facility contained inaccessible features. Plaintiffs allege businesses often state that they have 11 few customers with disabilities. Plaintiffs allege such customers avoid patronizing inaccessible business 12 and are deterred from patronizing such businesses. The courts have recognized deterrence-based damage 13 claims under Civil Code 54.3 and 52. Since California courts have held that the California disability access 14 laws manifest an intent on the part of the legislature that they be interpreted in a manner that maximizes 15 incentives for compliance, (see Donald, 266 Cal. Rptr. at 808-11) the courts conclude that application of 16 this canon of construction requires that 54.1 and 51, and their respective damages provisions, 54.3 and 52, 17 be interpreted as extending to claims based on incidents of deterrence. The courts therefore hold that where 18 a plaintiff can prove that violations of applicable California disability access standards deterred her on a 19 particular occasion from attempting to attend a place of public accommodation, that plaintiff states a claim 20 for relief under California Civil Code 54.1 and 51 and, in particular, for damages, under 54.3 and 52.
21 Plaintiffs allege people with disabilities still face systemic discrimination each and every day. One of the 22 most debilitating forms of discrimination is segregation imposed by others. Discrimination also includes 23 exclusion, or denial of benefits, services, or other opportunities that are as effective and meaningful as 24 those provided to others. Discrimination results from actions or inactions that discriminate by effect as well 25 as by intent or design. Discrimination also includes harms resulting from the construction of transportation, 26 architectural, and communication barriers and the adoption or application of standards and criteria and 27 practices and procedures based on thoughtlessness or indifference-of benign neglect. Discrimination also 28

1 includes harms affecting individuals with a history of disability, and those regarded by others as having a 2 disability as well as persons associated with such individuals that are based on false presumptions, 3 generalizations, misperceptions, patronizing attitudes, ignorance, irrational fears, and pernicious
4 mythologies. Discrimination also includes the effects a person's disability may have on others. The ADA
5 aim is: (1) To provide a clear and comprehensive national mandate for the elimination of discrimination 6 against individuals with disabilities; [and] (2) to provide clear, strong, consistent, enforceable standards 7 addressing discrimination against individuals with disabilities. (42 U.S.C. § 12101(b)(1), (2) (Supp. II 8 1990)) Plaintiffs allege the legislative history of the Act, which reflects congressional concerns over the 9 deleterious effects of discrimination against people with disabilities. As a result, Congress incorporated 10 within Title II of the ADA the remedial provision in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. (As 11 amended 29 U.S.C. § 794a)(42 U.S.C. § 12133)(See Smith v. Barton, 914 F.2d 1330, 1336 (9th Cir. 1990), 12 cert. denied, 111 S.Ct. 2825 (1991)) Much has been written recently about the ADA and its mechanisms of 13 enforcement. (See e.g., Doran v. Del Taco, Inc., --- F.Supp.2d ---- (C.D. Cal. June 9, 2005); Molski, 347 14 F.Supp.2d at 862-63; Parr v. L & L Drive-Inn Restaurant, 96 F.Supp.2d 1065, 1070-71 (D.Haw.2000)) For 15 purposes of this suit, it is sufficient to note that the statute creates a private right of action through which a 16 litigant may seek injunctive relief as well as attorneys' fees and costs. (42 U.S.C. § 2188(a)) Plaintiffs allege 17 that it cannot be said that because an attorney has chosen to specialize in an area, which provides statutory 18 attorneys fees his practice is necessarily suspect. Class actions, antitrust, and consumer protection statutes 19 are just some of the examples where the legislature has made a determination that society will benefit from 20 private attorneys general. The ADA is but another example. Plaintiff TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR 21 CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES is an organization that advocates on the behalf of 22 children and others with disabilities specifically including adults who use wheelchairs when their civil 23 rights and liberties have been violated. Plaintiff's Member visited the place in 2006 and plans on returning 24 to the place and he encountered architectural barriers there. Association standing requires that (1) its 25 members would otherwise have standing to sue in their own right, (2) the interests the association seeks to 26 protect are germane to the organization's purpose and (3) neither the claim asserted nor the relief requested 27 requires the participation of individual members. Hunt v. Washington Apple Advertising Commission, 432 28

1 U.S. 333, 343; Greater Los Angeles Council On Deafness, Inc. v. Baldrige, 827 F.2d 1353, 1358 (9th Cir.
2 1987). Plaintiffs have standing to bring this action. Plaintiff Association has at least four members who 3 use wheelchairs as they cannot walk at all. The purpose of the Association is to fight to remove access and 4 architectural barriers.

5 8. Plaintiff's Member has a physical impairment and due to this impairment he has learned to 6 successfully operate a wheelchair. Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) has physical impairments because her 7 conditions affect one or more of the following body systems: neurological, musculoskeletal, special sense 8 organs, and/or cardiovascular. Further, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) said physical impairments 9 substantially limits one or more of the following major life activities: walking. In addition, Plaintiff's 10 Member and Plaintiff(s) cannot perform one or more of the said major life activities in the manner, speed, 11 and duration when compared to the average person. Moreover, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) has a 12 history of or has been classified as having a physical impairment as required by 42 U.S.C. § 12102(2)(A).

13 9. Plaintiff's Members expressly intend to patronize the establishment and the property that is the 14 subject of this Complaint in the immediate future.

15 10. When Plaintiff's Member researched Defendants' facilities, he discovered he would be unable to 16 use the public accommodations' at Defendants' business establishment because they failed to comply with 17 ADA Access Guidelines For Buildings and Facilities (hereafter referred to as "ADAAG") and/or 18 California's Title 24 Building Code Requirements as specified herein. Defendants failed to remove access 19 barriers within the parking, exterior path of travel and entrance public accommodations of Defendants' 20 establishment. Plaintiff's Member was deterred from patronizing the facility because he experienced 21 difficulty using the parking, exterior path of travel and entrance access barriers at Defendants' facility.

22 11. The architectural regulations or "design standards" implemented by the federal ADA are often 23 referred to in the literature as "ADAAGs," which is an acronym for "ADA Architectural Guidelines." (See 24 Independent Living I, 982 F. Supp. at pp. 707-708 ["The guidelines issued by the Access Board are 25 denominated the 'ADA Accessibility Guidelines' ('ADAAG.'). The design standards enacted by the Attorney 26 General are identical to the ADAAGs, but are denominated as 'Standards.' Despite the technical distinction, 27 the two terms are often used interchangeably."]; Access Now, Inc. v. Ambulatory Surgery Center Group, 1 Ltd. (S.D. Fla. 2001) 146 F. Supp. 2d 1334, 1336 ["These guidelines are called ... ("ADAAG")"].) The 2 "ADAAGs" are found in Appendix A to Part 36 of title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The 3 ADAAG violations alleged here are basically so intuitive that it would be hard to believe that 4 noncompliance with them could be other than intentional.

5 12. Plaintiff(s) was deterred from patronizing the facility due to the alleged ADA violations and/or 6 alleged architectural barriers outlined in Paragraphs 10 through 11 above.

7 13. While Plaintiff's Member expressly wants to patronize Defendant's establishment and the property 8 that is the subject of this Complaint in the immediate future, Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Member is expressly 9 deterred from returning to the establishment and the property that is the subject of this Complaint due to the 10 existence of the architectural barriers outlined above in Paragraphs 10 through 11.

11 14. Pursuant to federal and state law, Defendants are required to remove barriers to their existing 12 facilities. Further, Defendants had actual knowledge of their barrier removal duties under the Americans 13 with Disabilities Act and the Civil Code before January 26, 1992. Also, Defendants should have known 14 that individuals with disabilities are not required to give notice to a governmental agency before filing suit 15 alleging Defendants failed to remove architectural barriers.

16 15. Plaintiffs believe and herein allege Defendants' facilities have access violations not directly 17 known by Plaintiff which preclude or limit access by other members of Plaintiff organization or other 18 persons with disabilities, including but not limited to violations relating to Space Allowance and Reach 19 Ranges, Accessible Route, Protruding Objects, Ground and Floor Surfaces, Parking and Passenger Loading 20 Zones, Curb Ramps, Ramps, Stairs, Elevators, Platform Lifts (Wheelchair Lifts), Windows, Doors, 21 Entrances, Drinking Fountains and Water Coolers, Water Closets, Toilet Stalls, Urinals, Lavatories and 22 Mirrors, Sinks, Storage, Handrails, Grab Bars, and Controls and Operating Mechanisms, Alarms, 23 Detectable Warnings, Signage, and Telephones. Accordingly, Plaintiffs allege Defendants are required to 24 remove all architectural barriers, known or unknown. Also, Plaintiffs allege Defendants are required to 25 utilize the ADA checklist for Readily Achievable Barrier Removal approved by the United States 26 Department of Justice and created by Adaptive Environments.

27 16. Based on these facts, Plaintiffs allege Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) were discriminated 28

1 against each time he patronized Defendants' establishment. Plaintiff's Member was extremely upset due to 2 Defendants' conduct.

3 NOTICE

4 17. Plaintiffs are not required to provide notice to the defendants prior to filing a complaint. (See 5 Botosan v. Paul McNally Realty, 216 F.3d 827, 832 (9th Cir 2000))

7 WHAT CLAIMS ARE PLAINTIFFS ALLEGING AGAINST EACH NAMED DEFENDANT

8 18. SANTA CLARA BEACH & BAY MOTEL; SAN-ERN INC; AMERICAN A-ONE
9 INVESTMENT CO; and Does 1 through 10 will be referred to collectively hereinafter as "Defendants." 10

11 19. Plaintiffs aver that the Defendants are liable for the following claims as alleged below:

12 DISCRIMINATORY PRACTICES IN PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS

13 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS- Claims Under The Americans With 14 Disabilities Act Of 1990

15 Claim I

16 19. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs on the basis of 17 disability in the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 18 accommodations of any place of public accommodation as Defendants own, lease (or lease to), or operate 19 a place of public accommodation in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.
20

21 Claim II

22 20. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs directly, or through 23 contractual, licensing, or other arrangements, to a denial of the opportunity of the individual or class to 24 participate in or benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of 25 an entity in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

26 Claim III

27 21. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as it is discriminatory or class, directly, or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements with the opportunity to participate in or benefit from a good, service, facility, privilege, advantage, or accommodation that is not equal to that afforded to other individuals in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

Claim IV

22. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as it is discriminatory to provide an individual or class of individuals, on the basis of a disability or disabilities of such individual or class, directly, or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements with a good, service, facility, privilege, advantage, or accommodation that is different or separate from that provided to other individuals.

Claim V

23. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendants failed to afford to an individual with a disability in the most integrated setting appropriate to the needs of the individual in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

Claim VI

24. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendants utilized standards or criteria or methods of administration that have the effect of discriminating on the basis of disability; or that perpetuate the discrimination of others who are subject to common administrative control in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

Claim VII

25. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as it is discriminatory to exclude or otherwise deny equal goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, accommodations, or other opportunities to an individual or entity because of the known disability of an individual with whom the individual or entity is known to have a relationship or association in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182. See Niece v. Fitzner 922 F. Supp. 1208 (1996)

Claim VIII

26. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendants engaged in the following specific prohibitions: (i) the imposition or application of eligibility criteria that screen out or tend to screen out an individual with a disability or any class of individuals with disabilities from fully

1 and equally enjoying any goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations, unless such 2 criteria can be shown to be necessary for the provision of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, 3 advantages, or accommodations being offered; (ii) a failure to make reasonable modifications in policies, 4 practices, or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities, 5 privileges, advantages, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities;

6 27. (iii) a failure to take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is 7 excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the 8 absence of auxiliary aids and services; (iv) a failure to remove architectural barriers, and communication 9 barriers that are structural in nature, in existing facilities in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

10 Claim IX

11 28. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendant failed to 12 demonstrate that the removal of a barrier is not readily achievable, and made such goods, services, 13 facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations available through alternative methods in a segregated 14 manner in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

15 Claim X

16 29. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendants altered 17 the use of their establishment in a manner that affected or could have affected the usability of the facility or 18 part thereof and failed to make alterations in such a manner that, to the maximum extent feasible, the 19 altered portions of the facility are readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, including 20 individuals who use wheelchairs in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12183.

21
22
23 30. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment and relief as hereinafter set forth.

24 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS - CLAIMS UNDER CALIFORNIA 25 ACCESSIBILITY LAWS

26 CLAIM I: Denial Of Full And Equal Access

27 31. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere in this complaint, Plaintiff's Member and 28 Plaintiff(s) was denied full and equal access to Defendants' goods, services, facilities, privileges,

1 advantages, or accommodations within a public accommodation owned, leased, and/or operated by 2 Defendants as required by Civil Code Sections 54 and 54.1. Defendants' facility violated California's Title
3 24 Accessible Building Code by failing to provide access to Defendants' facilities due to violations 4 pertaining to the Space Allowance and Reach Ranges, Accessible Route, Protruding Objects, Ground and 5 Floor Surfaces, Parking and Passenger Loading Zones, Curb Ramps, Ramps, Stairs, Elevators, Platform
6 Lifts (Wheelchair Lifts), Windows, Doors, Entrances, Drinking Fountains and Water Coolers, Water 7 Closets, Toilet Stalls, Urinals, Lavatories and Mirrors, Sinks, Storage, Handrails, Grab Bars, and Controls
8 and Operating Mechanisms, Alarms, Detectable Warnings, Signage, and Telephones. These violations
9 denied Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) full and equal access to Defendants' facility. Thus, Plaintiff's 10 Member and Plaintiff(s) was subjected to discrimination pursuant to Civil Code §§ 51, 52, and 54.1 because 11 Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) was denied full, equal and safe access to Defendants' facility, causing 12 severe emotional distress. The Disabled Persons Act is found in sections 54 of the Civil Code, and has been 13 around in some form on the statute books since the late 1960's--more than 20 years before the federal ADA.
14 (See Stats. 1968, ch. 461.) The Disabled Persons Act begins with the statement in subdivision (a) of section 15 54 that "Individuals with disabilities or medical conditions have the same right as the general public to the 16 full and free use of ... public facilities, and other public places." (β 54, subd. (a).) Section 54 is immediately 17 followed by section 54.1, subdivision (a)(3) of which--in contrast to the more spartan reference to the ADA 18 in section 51--specifically incorporates ADA regulations. The enforcement of section 54 is to be found in 19 section 54.3. Subdivision (a)(3) of section 54.1 provides: " 'Full and equal access,' for purposes of this 20 section in its application to transportation, means access that meets the standards of Titles II and III of the 21 Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) and federal regulations adopted pursuant 22 thereto, except that, if the laws of this state prescribe higher standards, it shall mean access that meets those 23 higher standards." Subdivision (a) of section 54.3 provides in its entirety: "Any person or persons, firm or 24 corporation who denies or interferes with admittance to or enjoyment of the public facilities as specified in 25 Sections 54 and 54.1 or otherwise interferes with the rights of an individual with a disability under Section 26 54, 54.1, and 54.2 is liable for each offense for the actual damages and any amount as may be determined 27 by a jury, or the court sitting without a jury, up to a maximum of three times the amount of actual damages 28

1 but in no case less than one thousand dollars ($ 1,000), and attorney's fees as may be determined by the 2 court in addition thereto, suffered by any person denied any of the rights provided in Sections 54, 54.1, and 3 54.2. 'Interfere' for purposes of this section, includes, but is not limited to, preventing or causing the 4 prevention of a guide dog, signal dog, or service dog from carrying out its functions in assisting a disabled 5 person." Section 54.3 was construed in the 1990 Cafe Royale decision as providing for strict liability--that 6 is, liability without any need for intentional conduct--prior to the 1992 legislation which added both 7 subdivision (f) to section 51 and subdivision (c) of section 54 (back then in the context of the minimum 8 penalty under section 54.3 which was $ 250; now it is $ 1,000). Cafe Royale was a case decided prior to the 9 enactment of the ADA, and contains not a word about federal law. It was also decided exclusively under 10 Civil Code section 54 et seq., and contains not one word on the Unruh Act. In Cafe Royale, a wheelchair 11 user (a former deputy Attorney General and member of the Attorney General's task force on disability) 12 discovered that he could not reach the main dining area of a tiered restaurant on his own, though the 13 restaurant offered to lift him up the stairs. He declined an offer of help because it would attract attention 14 and because he might be dropped in the process of being bodily picked up and moved. He sued the 15 restaurant under section 54.3 because of the absence of ramps or elevators to the second-tiered area. The 16 restaurant thought that it had complied with the law because its architect thought, based on an informal 17 conversation with an employee of the San Francisco building department, that a certain number of 18 handicapped seating places was "all that was needed for compliance." (See id. at p. 174.) The building 19 department employee, however, gave the restaurant architect erroneous advice. In fact, the State Building 20 Standards Code (required by Government Code section 4450 et seq) provided that all floors of a restaurant 21 be on a common level or else accessible by either ramps or elevators. While a hardship exemption might be 22 obtained, 75 percent of the main dining area would still need to be handicap accessible, and the Cafe
23 Royale's option of seating wheelchair patrons in the bar or having them carried to the common area was a 24 violation. On appeal, the fact of the violation was understood by all parties: "All parties agreed that Cafe 25 Royale's seating capacity was in violation of the handicap access requirements." (Cafe Royale, supra, 218 26 Cal. App. 3d at p. 174.) Hence issue was joined as to whether the restaurant's "good faith" belief that it was 27 "in compliance" (ibid.) was sufficient to deny the patron recovery under section 54.3. The trial court thought so, but the appellate court disagreed. The appellate court reasoned thusly: the fact that section 54.3 said a person who "denies or interferes with admittance to or enjoyment of the public facilities as specified in section 54 and 54.1 ... is liable for each offense ... but in no case less than two hundred fifty dollars ($ 250)" The court said: "The plain meaning of this language is that ordinarily minimum statutory damages in the amount of $ 250 must be awarded for a denial of equal access in violation of section 54 et seq., notwithstanding the defendant's intent." (Id. at p. 177.) The Cafe Royale court reasoned that an interpretation of section 54.3 that included an element of intentional violation would, because the level of compliance would diminish, yield "a result that is clearly repugnant to the statutory purpose." Further, the Donald case held a Plaintiff need not visit the facility to sue for compliance. (Id. at pp. 179-180.) So the trial court reversed the trial court judgment awarding the plaintiff nothing, and concluded that he was entitled to the $ 250 statutory minimum. (See id. at pp. 180-181.) Café Royale applies here. Thus, Defendants' good faith efforts, if any, are irrelevant as is any reliance on a city building inspector.

CLAIM II: Failure To Modify Practices, Policies And Procedures

32. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere herein this complaint, Defendants failed and refused to provide a reasonable alternative by modifying its practices, policies, and procedures in that they failed to have a scheme, plan, or design to assist Plaintiffs and/or others similarly situated in entering and utilizing Defendants' services as required by Civil Code § 54.1. Thus, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) were subjected to discrimination in violation of Civil Code § 54.1.

CLAIM III: Violation Of The Unruh Act

33. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere herein this complaint and because Defendants violated the Civil Code § 51 by failing to comply with 42 United States Code § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv) and 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2), Defendants did and continue to knowingly discriminate against Plaintiffs and persons similarly situated in violation of Civil Code §§ 51, 52, and 54.1. Plaintiffs allege the access violations alleged here are so obvious as to implicate at least a prima facie case of discriminatory intent.

34. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above, Claims I, II, and III of Plaintiffs' Second Cause Of Action above, and the facts elsewhere herein this complaint, Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable harm unless

1 Defendants are ordered to remove architectural, non-architectural, and communication barriers at 2 Defendants' public accommodation. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants' discriminatory conduct is capable of 3 repetition, and this discriminatory repetition adversely impacts Plaintiffs and a substantial segment of the 4 disability community. Plaintiffs allege there is a state and national public interest in requiring accessibility 5 in places of public accommodation. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law to redress the discriminatory 6 conduct of Defendants. Plaintiffs desire to return to Defendants' places of business in the immediate 7 future. Accordingly, the Plaintiffs allege that a structural or mandatory injunction is necessary to enjoin 8 compliance with state civil rights laws enacted for the benefit of individuals with disabilities.

9 35. Wherefore, Plaintiffs pray for damages and relief as hereinafter stated.

10
11 DEMAND FOR JUDGMENT FOR RELIEF:

12
13 A. For injunctive relief pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188(a). Plaintiffs request this Court enjoin 14 Defendants to remove all architectural barriers in, at, or on their facilities related to the following: Space
15 Allowance and Reach Ranges, Accessible Route, Protruding Objects, Ground and Floor Surfaces, Parking
16 and Passenger Loading Zones, Curb Ramps, Ramps, Stairs, Elevators, Platform Lifts (Wheelchair Lifts), 17 Windows, Doors, Entrances, Drinking Fountains and Water Coolers, Water Closets, Toilet Stalls, Urinals, 18 Lavatories and Mirrors, Sinks, Storage, Handrails, Grab Bars, and Controls and Operating Mechanisms, 19 Alarms, Detectable Warnings, Signage, and Telephones.

20 B. For damages pursuant to Cal. Civil Code § 52 or 54.3

21 C. For attorneys fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988, 42 U.S.C. § 12205, and Cal. Civil Code § 51, 52; 22 54.3;

23 D. A Jury Trial and;

24 E. For such other further relief as the court deems proper.
