CIVIL COMPLAINT:
DISCRIMINATORY PRACTICES IN PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS
[42 U.S.C. 12182(a) ET. SEQ; CIVIL
CODE 51, 52, 54, 54.1]

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL
[F.R.Civ.P. rule 38(b)]

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs herein complain, by filing this Civil Complaint in accordance with rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure in the Judicial District of the United States District Court of the SOUTHERN District of California, that Defendants have in the past, and presently are, engaging in discriminatory practices against individuals with disabilities, specifically including minorities with

1 disabilities. Plaintiffs allege this civil action and others substantial similar thereto are necessary to 2 compel access compliance because empirical research on the effectiveness of Title III of the 3 Americans with Disabilities Act indicates this Title has failed to achieve full and equal access 4 simply by the executive branch of the Federal Government funding and promoting voluntary 5 compliance efforts. Further, empirical research shows when individuals with disabilities give 6 actual notice of potential access problems to places of public accommodation without a federal 7 civil rights action, the public accommodations do not remove the access barriers. Therefore, 8 Plaintiffs make the following allegations in this federal civil rights action:

10 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 1. The federal jurisdiction of this action is based on the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42
12 United States Code 12101-12102, 12181-12183 and 12201, et seq. Venue in the Judicial District 13 of the United States District Court of the SOUTHERN District of California is in accordance with 14 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of Plaintiffs' claims arose within the Judicial 15 District of the United States District Court of the SOUTHERN District of California.

16 SUPPLEMENTAL JURISDICTION

17 2. The Judicial District of the United States District Court of the SOUTHERN District of 18 California has supplemental jurisdiction over the state claims as alleged in this Complaint pursuant 19 to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a). The reason supplemental jurisdiction is proper in this action is because all 20 the causes of action or claims derived from federal law and those arising under state law, as herein 21 alleged, arose from common nucleus of operative facts. The common nucleus of operative facts, 22 include, but are not limited to, the incidents where Plaintiffs were denied full and equal access to 23 Defendants' facilities, goods, and/or services in violation of both federal and state laws when they 24 attempted to enter, use, and/or exit Defendants' facilities as described below within this Complaint.

25 Further, due to this denial of full and equal access, TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR 26 CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES SUING ON BEHALF OF MEMBER 27 BRADFORD and other persons with disabilities were injured. Based upon the said allegations, the 28 state actions, as stated herein, are so related to the federal actions that they form part of the same

1 case or controversy and the actions would ordinarily be expected to be tried in one judicial 2 proceeding.

3 NAMED DEFENDANTS AND NAMED PLAINTIFF

4 3. Defendants are, and, at all times mentioned herein, were, a business or corporation or 5 franchise organized and existing and/or doing business under the laws of the State of California.

7 AVE, SAN DIEGO, CA 92114-4315; NADIR BAHO; ENCANTO LIQUOR are the owners,

3 4. The words "Plaintiffs" and "Plaintiff's Member" as used herein specifically include the 4 organization and TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL 5 DISABILITIES SUING ON BEHALF OF MEMBER BRADFORD and persons associated with its 6 Members who accompanied Members to Defendants' facilities. Defendants Does 1 through 10, 7 were at all times relevant herein subsidiaries, employers, employees, agents, of 6555 IMPERIAL 8 AVE, SAN DIEGO, CA 92114-4315; NADIR BAHO; ENCANTO LIQUOR. Plaintiffs are 9 ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 10, 10 inclusive, and therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs will pray leave 11 of the court to amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the Does when 12 ascertained.

13 5. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants and each of them 14 herein were, at all times relevant to the action, the owner, lessor, lessee, franchiser, franchisee, 15 general partner, limited partner, agent, employee, representing partner, or joint venturer of the 16 remaining Defendants and were acting within the course and scope of that relationship. Plaintiffs 17 are further informed and believe, and thereon allege, that each of the Defendants herein gave 18 consent to, ratified, and/or authorized the acts alleged herein to each of the remaining Defendants.

19 STATEWIDE CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS UNDER FED.R.CIV.P. 23(b) AS TO ALL
20 DEFENDANTS

21 6. Plaintiffs are members of a group within the State of California composed of persons with a 22 wide range of disabilities, limited to persons who use wheelchairs for mobility, who must be able to 23 access retail merchandise establishments, like Defendants' establishments located within the 24 complex in which 6555 IMPERIAL AVE, SAN DIEGO, CA 92114-4315; NADIR BAHO;
25 ENCANTO LIQUOR is located. Plaintiffs are precluded from equal access to Defendants' 26 establishments so meaningfully because the establishments, and each of them, fail to provide access 27 for members of the disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility to disabled parking 28 facilities, exterior path of travel facilities, entrance facilities, interior path of travel facilities, and display facilities. The Supreme Court of the United States has held as long as the class

1 representative provides adequate representation for the class' interests, the court has the power to 2 adjudicate the rights and obligations of all class members – even those who would otherwise be 3 beyond the reach of its personal jurisdiction. Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 US 797 (1985).
4 This case stands for the proposition that minimum contacts are not required with nonresident
5 members of a plaintiff class because, “the burdens placed by a State upon absent class action 6 plaintiff are not of the same order or magnitude as those it places on an absent defendant.” Id.
7 Plaintiffs allege they will insure class members shall receive adequate notice of the proceedings and 8 the opportunity to “opt out,” if required. Defendants have conducted themselves such as to 9 establish a pattern and practice of architectural discrimination. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants 10 have control over each and every facility, establishment, and/or business located within the 11 Defendant Landlords’ facilities in which Defendant 6555 IMPERIAL AVE, SAN DIEGO, CA 12 92114-4315; NADIR BAHO; ENCANTO LIQUOR is located. Accordingly, Plaintiffs allege 13 Defendants are responsible for removing architectural barriers at Defendants’ facilities and the 14 establishment/business contained therein. For the aforementioned reasons, Plaintiffs allege they are 15 proper class representatives for members of the disability community who use a wheelchair for 16 mobility because the members of the disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility are 17 so numerous that joinder is impracticable due to the fact more than one hundred (100) persons fall 18 within the membership description. Also, the questions of law or fact are so common because the 19 members of the disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility are being denied their civil 20 rights under federal and state laws – that is, each member of the disability community who use a 21 wheelchair for mobility suffered substantially similar violations relating to exterior path of travel 22 facilities, entrance facilities, restrooms, interior path of travel facilities, and display facilities.
23 Further, the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical – Plaintiffs have the right to 24 access facilities, establishments, and businesses like those within the complex in which Defendant 25 6555 IMPERIAL AVE, SAN DIEGO, CA 92114-4315; NADIR BAHO; ENCANTO LIQUOR is 26 located, and the businesses that are located in said complex for many reasons such as the purchase 27 of retail merchandise. Defendants’ facilities are open to the general public and Plaintiffs have been 28

1 denied access because of violations, as outlined above and specifically addressed elsewhere within 2 this Complaint. Additionally, Plaintiffs, as the named representatives, will fairly and adequately
3 represent the interests of the class because Plaintiffs and the members of the disability community 4 in the State of California who use a wheelchair for mobility have suffered substantially similar 5 violations. Finally, a pattern and practice exists on the part of Defendants, and each of them, of 6 architectural discrimination at their public facilities located within the State of California. On 7 information and good faith belief, Plaintiffs thereon allege that Defendants, prior to the passing of 8 the Americans With Disabilities Act in 1992, conceived, commissioned, designed, and 9 implemented among other things, a design for their public facilities, including, but not limited to 10 disabled parking facilities, exterior path of travel facilities, restroom, entrance facilities, interior 11 path of travel facilities, and display facilities, which do not meet the minimal standards outlined 12 under the federal regulations known as the Americans With Disabilities Act Accessibility 13 Guidelines ("ADAAG") and state regulations, also known as Title 24 of the California Building 14 Code, and to which non-compliant plan they continue to utilize to the injury of the members of the 15 class. For these reasons and the facts as stated herein, Plaintiffs have the right to maintain this 16 statewide class action pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. Rule 23(b).

18 CONCISE SET OF FACTS

19 7. In 2006, Plaintiff's MEMBER BRADFORD went to the 6555 IMPERIAL AVE, SAN 20 DIEGO, CA 92114-4315; NADIR BAHO; ENCANTO LIQUOR. As PLAINTIFF'S MEMBER 21 BRADFORD is unable to walk PLAINTIFF'S MEMBER BRADFORD uses a wheelchair.
22 PLAINTIFF'S MEMBER BRADFORD experienced architectural barriers at the place which 23 impeded his access. Plaintiff can prove these barriers as Plaintiff conducted a survey of 24 Defendants' facility and Plaintiff's counsel will provide it to competent defense counsel. Plaintiff 25 alleges its visually and hearing impaired members desire to go to Defendants' facility but cannot 26 because of lack of auxiliary aids.
27 Plaintiffs specifically allege that Defendants knew, to a substantial certainty, that the architectural 28 barriers precluded wheelchair access. First, Plaintiffs will prove that Defendants had actual 1 knowledge that the architectural barriers precluded wheelchair access - that it would be hard to 2 believe that noncompliance with ADAAG as to accessible entrances could be other than 3 intentional. Second, due to the abundance of ADA information and constant news covers of ADA 4 lawsuits, Defendants had actual knowledge of the ADA and decided deliberately not to remove 5 architectural barriers. Third, Defendants have no plans to remodel. Fourth, it would be hard to 6 believe that Defendants did not have actual knowledge of ADA given all the ADA public 7 awareness campaigns, the abundance of free ADA information and the media's constant ADA 8 coverage. Fifth, a human being acting for the defendants made a conscious decision as to how to 9 proceed given the presence of the architectural barriers. Plaintiffs allege any alternative methods 10 preclude integration of wheelchair patrons, as it requires them to use a second-class entrance. Also, 11 expert testimony will show the facility contained inaccessible features. Plaintiffs allege businesses 12 often state that they have few customers with disabilities. Plaintiffs allege such customers avoid 13 patronizing inaccessible business and are deterred from patronizing such businesses. The courts 14 have recognized deterrence-based damage claims under Civil Code 54.3 and 52. Since California 15 courts have held that the California disability access laws manifest an intent on the part of the 16 legislature that they be interpreted in a manner that maximizes incentives for compliance, (see 17 Donald, 266 Cal. Rptr. at 808-11) the courts conclude that application of this canon of construction 18 requires that 54.1 and 51, and their respective damages provisions, 54.3 and 52, be interpreted as 19 extending to claims based on incidents of deterrence. The courts therefore hold that where a 20 plaintiff can prove that violations of applicable California disability access standards deterred her 21 on a particular occasion from attempting to attend a place of public accommodation, that plaintiff 22 states a claim for relief under California Civil Code 54.1 and 51 and, in particular, for damages, 23 under 54.3 and 52. Plaintiffs allege people with disabilities still face systemic discrimination each 24 and every day. One of the most debilitating forms of discrimination is segregation imposed by 25 others. Discrimination also includes exclusion, or denial of benefits, services, or other 26 opportunities that are as effective and meaningful as those provided to others. Discrimination 27 results from actions or inactions that discriminate by effect as well as by intent or design.

Discrimination also includes harms resulting from the construction of transportation, architectural, and communication barriers and the adoption or application of standards and criteria and practices and procedures based on thoughtlessness or indifference-of benign neglect. Discrimination also includes harms affecting individuals with a history of disability, and those regarded by others as having a disability as well as persons associated with such individuals that are based on false presumptions, generalizations, misperceptions, patronizing attitudes, ignorance, irrational fears, and pernicious mythologies. Discrimination also includes the effects a person's disability may have on others. The ADA aim is: (1) To provide a clear and comprehensive national mandate for the elimination of discrimination against individuals with disabilities; [and] (2) to provide clear, strong, consistent, enforceable standards addressing discrimination against individuals with disabilities. (42 U.S.C. § 12101(b)(1), (2) (Supp. II 1990)) Plaintiffs allege the legislative history of the Act, which reflects congressional, concerns over the deleterious effects of discrimination against people with disabilities. As a result, Congress incorporated within Title II of the ADA the remedial provision in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. (As amended 29 U.S.C. § 794a)(42 U.S.C. § 12133)(See Smith v. Barton, 914 F.2d 1330, 1336 (9th Cir. 1990), cert. denied, 111 S.Ct. 2825 (1991)) Much has been written recently about the ADA and its mechanisms of enforcement. (See e.g., Doran v. Del Taco, Inc., --- F.Supp.2d ---- (C.D. Cal. June 9, 2005); Molski, 347 F.Supp.2d at 862-63; Parr v. L & L Drive-Inn Restaurant, 96 F.Supp.2d 1065, 1070-71 (D.Haw.2000)) For purposes of this suit, it is sufficient to note that the statute creates a private right of action through which a litigant may seek injunctive relief as well as attorneys' fees and costs. (42 U.S.C. § 2188(a)) Plaintiffs allege that it cannot be said that because an attorney has chosen to specialize in an area, which provides statutory attorneys fees his practice is necessarily suspect. Class actions, antitrust, and consumer protection statutes are just some of the examples where the legislature has made a determination that society will benefit from private attorneys general. The ADA is but another example. Plaintiff TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES is an organization that advocates on the behalf of children and others with disabilities specifically including adults who use wheelchairs

1 when their civil rights and liberties have been violated. MEMBER BRADFORD visited the place 2 in 2006 and plans on returning to the place and he encountered architectural barriers there.

3 Association standing requires that (1) its members would otherwise have standing to sue in their 4 own right, (2) the interests the association seeks to protect are germane to the organization's 5 purpose and (3) neither the claim asserted nor the relief requested requires the participation of 6 individual members. Hunt v. Washington Apple Advertising Commission, 432 U.S. 333, 343; 7 Greater Los Angeles Council On Deafness, Inc. v. Baldrige, 827 F.2d 1353, 1358 (9th Cir. 1987).
8 Plaintiffs have standing to bring this action. Plaintiff Association has at least four members who 9 use wheelchairs as they cannot walk at all. The purpose of the Association is to fight to remove 10 access and architectural barriers.

11 8. Plaintiff MEMBER BRADFORD has a physical impairment and due to this impairment he 12 has learned to successfully operate a wheelchair. Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) has physical 13 impairments because her conditions affect one or more of the following body systems:
14 neurological, musculoskeletal, special sense organs, and/or cardiovascular. Further, Plaintiff's 15 Member and Plaintiff(s) said physical impairments substantially limits one or more of the following 16 major life activities: walking. In addition, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) cannot perform one 17 or more of the said major life activities in the manner, speed, and duration when compared to the 18 average person. Moreover, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) has a history of or has been 19 classified as having a physical impairment as required by 42 U.S.C. § 12102(2)(A).

20 9. Plaintiff's Members expressly intend to patronize the establishment and the property that is 21 the subject of this Complaint in the immediate future.

22 10. When Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff MEMBER BRADFORD researched Defendants' 23 facilities, he discovered
24 he would be unable to use the public accommodations' at Defendants' business establishments 25 because they failed to comply with ADA Access Guidelines For Buildings and Facilities (hereafter 26 referred to as "ADAAG") and/or California's Title 24 Building Code Requirements as specified 27 herein. Defendants failed to remove access barriers within the parking public accommodations of 28

1 Defendants' establishment. Plaintiff's Member was deterred from patronizing the facility because 2 she experienced difficulty using the exterior path of travel access barriers at Defendants' facility.

3 11. The architectural regulations or "design standards" implemented by the federal ADA are 4 often referred to in the literature as "ADAAGs," which is an acronym for "ADA Architectural 5 Guidelines." (See Independent Living I, 982 F. Supp. at pp. 707-708 ["The guidelines issued by the 6 Access Board are denominated the 'ADA Accessibility Guidelines' ('ADAAG.') The design 7 standards enacted by the Attorney General are identical to the ADAAGs, but are denominated as 8 'Standards.' Despite the technical distinction, the two terms are often used interchangeably."]; 9 Access Now, Inc. v. Ambulatory Surgery Center Group, Ltd. (S.D. Fla. 2001) 146 F. Supp. 2d 10 1334, 1336 ["These guidelines are called ... ("ADAAG")"].) The "ADAAGs" are found in 11 Appendix A to Part 36 of title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The ADAAG violations 12 alleged here are basically so intuitive that it would be hard to believe that noncompliance with them 13 could be other than intentional.

14 12. Plaintiff(s) was deterred from patronizing the facility due to the alleged ADA violations 15 and/or alleged architectural barriers outlined in Paragraphs 10 through 11 above.

16 13. While Plaintiff MEMBER BRADFORD expressly wants to patronize Defendant's 17 establishment and the property that is the subject of this Complaint in the immediate future, 18 Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Member is expressly deterred from returning to the establishment and the 19 property that is the subject of this Complaint due to the existence of the architectural barriers 20 outlined above in Paragraphs 10 through 11.

21 14. Pursuant to federal and state law, Defendants are required to remove barriers to their 22 existing facilities. Further, Defendants had actual knowledge of their barrier removal duties under 23 the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Civil Code before January 26, 1992. Also, Defendants 24 should have known that individuals with disabilities are not required to give notice to a 25 governmental agency before filing suit alleging Defendants failed to remove architectural barriers.

26 15. Plaintiffs believe and herein allege Defendants' facilities have access violations not 27 directly known by Plaintiff which preclude or limit access by other members of Plaintiff organization or other persons with disabilities, including but not limited to violations relating to Space Allowance and Reach Ranges, Accessible Route, Protruding Objects, Ground and Floor Surfaces, Parking and Passenger Loading Zones, Curb Ramps, Ramps, Stairs, Elevators, Platform Lifts (Wheelchair Lifts), Windows, Doors, Entrances, Drinking Fountains and Water Coolers, Water Closets, Toilet Stalls, Urinals, Lavatories and Mirrors, Sinks, Storage, Handrails, Grab Bars, and Controls and Operating Mechanisms, Alarms, Detectable Warnings, Signage, and Telephones. Accordingly, Plaintiffs allege Defendants are required to remove all architectural barriers, known or unknown. Also, Plaintiffs allege Defendants are required to utilize the ADA checklist for Readily Achievable Barrier Removal approved by the United States Department of Justice and created by Adaptive Environments.

16. Based on these facts, Plaintiffs allege Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) were discriminated against each time he patronized Defendants' establishment. Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) was extremely upset due to Defendants' conduct.

NOTICE

17. Plaintiffs are not required to provide notice to the defendants prior to filing a complaint. (See Botosan v. Paul McNally Realty, 216 F.3d 827, 832 (9th Cir 2000)).

20 violated California's Title 24 Accessible Building Code by failing to provide access to Defendants' 21 facilities due to violations pertaining to the Space Allowance and Reach Ranges, Accessible Route, 22 Protruding Objects, Ground and Floor Surfaces, Parking and Passenger Loading Zones, Curb 23 Ramps, Ramps, Stairs, Elevators, Platform Lifts (Wheelchair Lifts), Windows, Doors, Entrances, 24 Drinking Fountains and Water Coolers, Water Closets, Toilet Stalls, Urinals, Lavatories and 25 Mirrors, Sinks, Storage, Handrails, Grab Bars, and Controls and Operating Mechanisms, Alarms, 26 Detectable Warnings, Signage, and Telephones. These violations denied Plaintiff's Member and 27 Plaintiff(s) full and equal access to Defendants' facility. Thus, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s)
28 was subjected to discrimination pursuant to Civil Code §§ 51, 52, and 54.1 because Plaintiff's

1 Member and Plaintiff(s) was denied full, equal and safe access to Defendants' facility, causing 2 severe emotional distress. The Disabled Persons Act is found in sections 54 of the Civil Code, and 3 has been around in some form on the statute books since the late 1960's--more than 20 years before 4 the federal ADA. (See Stats. 1968, ch. 461.) The Disabled Persons Act begins with the statement in 5 subdivision (a) of section 54 that "Individuals with disabilities or medical conditions have the same 6 right as the general public to the full and free use of ... public facilities, and other public places." (β 7 54, subd. (a).) Section 54 is immediately followed by section 54.1, subdivision (a)(3) of which--in 8 contrast to the more spartan reference to the ADA in section 51--specifically incorporates ADA 9 regulations. The enforcement of section 54 is to be found in section 54.3. Subdivision (a)(3) of 10 section 54.1 provides: " 'Full and equal access,' for purposes of this section in its application to 11 transportation, means access that meets the standards of Titles II and III of the Americans with 12 Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) and federal regulations adopted pursuant thereto, 13 except that, if the laws of this state prescribe higher standards, it shall mean access that meets those 14 higher standards." Subdivision (a) of section 54.3 provides in its entirety: "Any person or persons, 15 firm or corporation who denies or interferes with admittance to or enjoyment of the public facilities 16 as specified in Sections 54 and 54.1 or otherwise interferes with the rights of an individual with a 17 disability under Section 54, 54.1, and 54.2 is liable for each offense for the actual damages and any 18 amount as may be determined by a jury, or the court sitting without a jury, up to a maximum of 19 three times the amount of actual damages but in no case less than one thousand dollars ($ 1,000), 20 and attorney's fees as may be determined by the court in addition thereto, suffered by any person 21 denied any of the rights provided in Sections 54, 54.1, and 54.2. 'Interfere' for purposes of this 22 section, includes, but is not limited to, preventing or causing the prevention of a guide dog, signal 23 dog, or service dog from carrying out its functions in assisting a disabled person." Section 54.3 was 24 construed in the 1990 Cafe Royale decision as providing for strict liability--that is, liability without 25 any need for intentional conduct--prior to the 1992 legislation which added both subdivision (f) to 26 section 51 and subdivision (c) of section 54 (back then in the context of the minimum penalty under 27 section 54.3 which was $ 250; now it is $ 1,000). Cafe Royale was a case decided prior to the 28

1 enactment of the ADA, and contains not a word about federal law. It was also decided exclusively 2 under Civil Code section 54 et seq., and contains not one word on the Unruh Act. In Cafe Royale, 3 a wheelchair user (a former deputy Attorney General and member of the Attorney General's task 4 force on disability) discovered that he could not reach the main dining area of a tiered restaurant on 5 his own, though the restaurant offered to lift him up the stairs. He declined an offer of help because 6 it would attract attention and because he might be dropped in the process of being bodily picked up
7 and moved. He sued the restaurant under section 54.3 because of the absence of ramps or elevators 8 to the second-tiered area. The restaurant thought that it had complied with the law because its 9 architect thought, based on an informal conversation with an employee of the San Francisco 10 building department, that a certain number of handicapped seating places was "all that was needed 11 for compliance." (See id. at p. 174.) The building department employee, however, gave the 12 restaurant architect erroneous advice. In fact, the State Building Standards Code (required by 13 Government Code section 4450 et seq) provided that all floors of a restaurant be on a common level 14 or else accessible by either ramps or elevators. While a hardship exemption might be obtained, 75
15 percent of the main dining area would still need to be handicap accessible, and the Cafe Royale's 16 option of seating wheelchair patrons in the bar or having them carried to the common area was a 17 violation. On appeal, the fact of the violation was understood by all parties: "All parties agreed that 18 Cafe Royale's seating capacity was in violation of the handicap access requirements." (Cafe Royale, 19 supra, 218 Cal. App. 3d at p. 174.) Hence issue was joined as to whether the restaurant's "good 20 faith" belief that it was "in compliance" (ibid.) was sufficient to deny the patron recovery under 21 section 54.3. The trial court thought so, but the appellate court disagreed. The appellate court 22 reasoned thusly: the fact that section 54.3 said a person who "denies or interferes with admittance 23 to or enjoyment of the public facilities as specified in section 54 and 54.1 ... is liable for each 24 offense ... but in no case less than two hundred fifty dollars ($ 250)" The court said: "The plain 25 meaning of this language is that ordinarily minimum statutory damages in the amount of $ 250 26 must be awarded for a denial of equal access in violation of section 54 et seq., notwithstanding the 27 defendant's intent." (Id. at p. 177.) The Cafe Royale court reasoned that an interpretation of section 28

1 54.3 that included an element of intentional violation would, because the level of compliance 2 would diminish, yield "a result that is clearly repugnant to the statutory purpose." Further, the 3 Donald case held a Plaintiff need not visit the facility to sue for compliance. (Id. at pp. 179-180.) So 4 the trial court reversed the trial court judgment awarding the plaintiff nothing, and concluded that 5 he was entitled to the $ 250 statutory minimum. (See id. at pp. 180-181.) Café Royale applies here.
6 Thus, Defendants' good faith efforts, if any, are irrelevant as is any reliance on a city building 7 inspector.

9 CLAIM II: Failure To Modify Practices, Policies And Procedures

10 32. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere herein this complaint, Defendants 11 failed and refused to provide a reasonable alternative by modifying its practices, policies, and 12 procedures in that they failed to have a scheme, plan, or design to assist Plaintiffs and/or others 13 similarly situated in entering and utilizing Defendants' services as required by Civil Code § 54.1.
14 Thus, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) were subjected to discrimination in violation of Civil 15 Code § 54.1.
16

17
18 CLAIM III: Violation Of The Unruh Act

19 33. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere herein this complaint and because 20 Defendants violated the Civil Code § 51 by failing to comply with 42 United States Code §
21 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv) and 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2), Defendants did and continue to knowingly 22 discriminate against Plaintiffs and persons similarly situated in violation of Civil Code §§ 51, 52, 23 and 54.1. Plaintiffs allege the access violations alleged here are so obvious as to implicate at least a 24 prima facie case of discriminatory intent.

25 34. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above, Claims I, II, and III of Plaintiffs' Second Cause 26 Of Action above, and the facts elsewhere herein this complaint, Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable 27 harm unless Defendants are ordered to remove architectural, non-architectural, and communication 28 barriers at Defendants' public accommodation. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants' discriminatory

1 conduct is capable of repetition, and this discriminatory repetition adversely impacts Plaintiffs and 2 a substantial segment of the disability community. Plaintiffs allege there is a state and national 3 public interest in requiring accessibility in places of public accommodation. Plaintiffs have no 4 adequate remedy at law to redress the discriminatory conduct of Defendants. Plaintiffs desire to 5 return to Defendants' places of business in the immediate future. Accordingly, the Plaintiffs allege 6 that a structural or mandatory injunction is necessary to enjoin compliance with state civil rights 7 laws enacted for the benefit of individuals with disabilities.

8 35. Wherefore, Plaintiffs pray for damages and relief as hereinafter stated.
